The Art of Being Indispensable at Work Bruce Tulgan,2020-07-21 What s the secret to being indispensable a true go to person in today s workplace With new technology constant change and uncertainty and far flung virtual teams getting things done at work is tougher and more complex than ever We re in the midst of a collaboration revolution working with everyone all the time across silos and platforms But sometimes it feels like we re stuck in a no win cycle dealing with an overwhelming influx of asks with unclear lines of communication and authority

Overcommitment syndrome looms larger than ever before. But even amid the seeming chaos, there's always that indispensable go-to person who thrives on their many working relationships with people all over the organization chart. How do they do it? Go to people consistently, make themselves valuable to others, maintain a positive attitude of service, are creative and tenacious, and take personal responsibility for getting the right things done. In this game-changing yet practical book, talent guru and bestselling author Bruce Tugan reveals the secrets of the go-to person in our new world of work. Based on an intensive study of people at all levels in all kinds of organizations, Tugan shows how go-to people think and behave differently, building up their influence with others not by trying to do everything for everybody but by doing the right things at the right times for the right reasons, regardless of whether they have the formal authority. This book will teach you to understand the peculiar mathematics of real influence, lead from wherever you are (up, down, sideways, and diagonal), know when to say no or not yet, and how to say yes. Keep getting better and better at working together. And much more. The Art of Being Indispensable at Work is the new How to Win Friends and Influence People for an era in which the guardrails of traditional management have been pulled away. Scaling Smart: Strategies for Sustainable Growth Ahmed Musa, 2025-01-05

Surgically Shaping Children Erik Parens, 2006-05-06. Winner of an Honorable Mention in the Clinical Medicine category of the Professional and Scholarly Publishing Awards given by the Association of American Publishers. At a time when medical technologies make it ever easier to enhance our minds and bodies, a debate has arisen about whether such efforts promote a process of normalization which makes it ever harder to tolerate the natural anatomical differences among us. The debate becomes especially complicated when it addresses the surgical alteration or shaping of children. This volume explores the ethical and social issues raised by the recent proliferation of surgeries designed to make children born with physical differences look more normal Using three cases surgeries to eliminate craniofacial abnormalities such as cleft lip and palate surgeries to correct ambiguous genitalia and surgeries to lengthen the limbs of children born with dwarfism the contributors consider the tensions parents experience when making such life altering decisions on behalf of or with their children The essays in this volume offer in depth examinations of the significance and limits of surgical alteration through personal narratives theoretical reflections and concrete suggestions about how to improve the decision making process Written from the perspectives of affected children and their parents health care providers and leading scholars in philosophy sociology history law and medicine this collection provides an integrated and comprehensive foundation from which to consider a complex and controversial issue It takes the reader on a journey from reflections on the particulars of current medical practices to reflections on one of the deepest and most complex of human desires the desire for normality Contributors Priscilla Alderson Adrienne Asch Cassandra Aspinall Alice Domurat Dreger James C Edwards Todd C Edwards Ellen K Feder Arthur W Frank Lisa Abelow Hedley Eva Fedder Kittay Hilde Lindemann Jeffery L Marsh Paul Steven Miller Sherri G Morris Wendy E Mouradian Donald L Patrick Nichola Rumsey Emily Sullivan Sanford Tari D Topolski
