Autocar, 2006 Aargh! Joss Smith Westonpeplerpepler, 2011-06-01 The writing is a fascinating blend of wry contemporary social narrative à la Nick Hornby yet conveying a message about the divisive South African culture reminiscent of JM Coetzee Some of the brutally honest accounts of Joss early sexual encounters would probably shock if taken out of context but he somehow manages to make them seem wholly acceptable as he struggles to come to terms with his many desires in an Apartheid governed world Rupert Reid Description This eccentric book is an attempt to make manic depression more widely understood given the stigmatism that it is usually associated with The illness creates a jaundiced perception of people and reality and it is probably for this reason that the characters names are changed otherwise it is a real story However there is no distinction between reality and dreams It is not a story about success victory or triumph although equally given the circumstances it is also not one of failure either It is a journey that starts in normality and ends in the opposite corner beginning with a disturbed and violent dream The book charts the experiences of Joss through Africa and Australia marriage and running a business On a few occasions the narrative fails and the author expresses his nightmares secret thoughts imagery and disbeliefs in poetry The sudden loss of control or sanity and his arrival in a mental asylum and the view from inside is both very distressing and strangely humorous It ends on a note of poignancy recalling Joss supposed recovery and his attempted assimilation back into society A fascinating and thoroughly engaging read a must for anybody who wishes to further understand the thoughts and actions of a manic depressive About the Author Joss has been a Company Director and is now a student at the Open University Joss is a republican who does not use products that have been tested on animals prefers to buy second hand clothes from Oxfam reads the Telegraph and listens to Radio Four His experiences include seeing a UFO scratching a white rhino and a tarantula s stomach riding an ostrich and he has been in a high speed police car chase Joss has run the Comrades Marathon 89 kilometres in 7 hours 29 minutes and 59 seconds For nine years Joss was a vegetarian did not eat chocolate or drink alcohol He is a one time member of Greenpeace votes Labour is a pacifist asthmatic left hander bow legged has one kidney and suffers from manic depression Pax Britannica Paul
