Stand Up And Be Men:

Some Men Michael A. Messner, Max A. Greenberg, Tal Peretz, 2015-02-16 What does it mean for men to join with women as allies in preventing sexual assault and domestic violence Based on life history interviews with men and women anti violence activists aged 22 to 70 Some Men explores the strains and tensions of men's work as feminist allies When feminist women began to mobilize against rape and domestic violence setting up shelters and rape crisis centers a few men asked what they could do to help They were directed upstream and told to talk to the men with the goal of preventing future acts of violence This is a book about men who took this charge seriously committing themselves to working with boys and men to stop violence and to change the definition of what it means to be a man The book examines the experiences of three generational cohorts a movement cohort of men who engaged with anti violence work in the 1970s and early 1980s during the height of the feminist anti violence mobilizations a bridge cohort who engaged with anti violence work from the mid 1980s into the 1990s as feminism receded as a mass movement and activists built sustainable organizations a professional cohort who engaged from the mid 1990s to the present as anti violence work has become embedded in community and campus organizations non profits and the state Across these different time periods stories from life history interviews illuminate men's varying paths including men of different ethnic and class backgrounds into anti violence work Some Men explores the promise of men's violence prevention work with boys and men in schools college sports fraternities and the U S military It illuminates the strains and tensions of such work including the reproduction of male privilege in feminist spheres and explores how men and women navigate these tensions To learn more please visit somenen.org

The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth-Century Verse Alan Rudrum, Joseph Black, Holly Faith Nelson, 2020-12-24 The publication of The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth Century Verse and Prose is a literary event this comprehensive volume is the first anthology of the period to reflect the breadth of seventeenth century studies in recent decades Over one hundred writers are included from John Chamberlain at the beginning of the century to Elisabeth Singer Rowe at its end There are generous selections from the work of all major writers and a representation of the work of virtually every writer of significance The work of women writers figures prominently with extensive selections not only from canonical writers such as Behn and Bradstreet but also from other writers such as Katherine Philips and Margaret Cavendish who have been receiving considerable scholarly attention in recent years The anthology is broadly inclusive with writing from America as well as from the British Isles Memoirs letters political texts travel writing prophetic literature street ballads and pamphlet literature are all here as is a full representation of the literary poetry and prose of the period including the poetry of Jonson the prose of Bacon the metaphysical poetry of Donne Herbert Marvell and others the lyric verse of Herrick and substantial selections from the poetry and prose of Milton and Dryden While Samson Agonistes is included in its entirety Milton's epic poems have been excluded in order to allow space for other works not so readily accessible elsewhere The editors have included complete works wherever possible A headnote by the editors introduces each author and each selection has been newly annotated

Can I Get an Amen? Darren F Longuemire Sr., 2019-03-31 Hello Readers To God be the glory I would like to take a little time to tell you about this book that I have written and how God led me to write it Over the years of growth I can truly say I have developed a personal relationship with Christ He speaks to me he tells me things that only Christ could tell me He often gives me messages in the form of poems That only God can do God gives me the words and I simply write them down I remember the first poem Christ gave me It was a home going poem for my father On June 19 2007 my father went to glory I wanted to say something about my father publicly but I had a fear of speaking before crowds There was something about speaking before a crowd that always gave me a feeling of fear I couldn't let this fear stop me from letting the world know how I felt about this great man I needed to write something down to let people know how I felt about him I experienced a lot of sleepless nights trying to think of words worthy of my feelings for him Two days before the home going I was awakened at 2 00 a m by what I believe to be the Holy Spirit I went into another room and within an hour I had written a poem that I felt was worthy enough to tell The church clerk read the poem and mentioned that I wrote it I was complemented for the words I wrote All I could say was to God be the glory Here is the first poem I wrote entitled Greet Us with A Smile Good night Daddy we'll see you in a while When we get to heaven you ll greet us with a smile Mama Kenny Bruce and the rest We want to thank you Daddy for giving us your best Go ahead and sleep Daddy Go ahead and rest We ll see you in the morning though I must confess We re really going to miss you but only for a while Because when we get to heaven you ll greet us with a smile Thank you Jesus for letting us borrow him this long Help us to understand that it was time for him to go home But we all know it s only for a while Because when we get to heaven you ll greet us with a smile With all the love that a family could give You ll always be with us because in us you ll always live Go ahead and sleep Daddy but only for a while Because when we get to heaven I know you ll greet us
