The Irresistible Inheritance Of Wilberforce English Edition:

Relevance and Narrative Research Matei Chihai, Katharina Rennhak, 2019-03-28 Relevance is one of the most widely used buzz words in academic and other socio political discourses and institutions today which constantly ask us to be relevant To date there is no profound scholarly conceptualization of the term however which is widely accepted in the humanities Relevance and Narrative Research closes this gap by initiating a discussion which turns the vaguely defined evaluative tool relevance into an object of study The contributors to this volume do so by firmly situating questions of relevance in the context of narrative theory Briefly put they ask either What can relevance do for narrative research or What can narrative research do for better understanding relevance or both The basic assumption is that relevance is a relational term Further assuming that most if not all relations which human beings encounter within their cultures are narratively constructed the contributors to this volume suggest that reflections on narrative and narrative research are fundamental to any endeavor to conceptualize notions of relevance Theo Paul Torday, 2012-12-20 From the bestselling author of Salmon Fishing in the Yemen a haunting novella that introduced one of the most memorable characters from Torday's novel Light Shining in the Forest Paul Torday is a remarkably original novelist EVENING STANDARD John Elliott is the recently appointed vicar of St Joseph's a dilapidated church with a congregation of sixteen and a leaky roof Having entered the Church more by default than through any great calling he struggles to inject some life into his ailing parish His wife Christine longs for them to escape the endless rounds of coffee mornings and cake sales Then Theo a child at her school starts to exhibit strange marks on his hands and feet that vanish almost as soon as they have appeared What has produced these marks is it physical violence or something stranger And why has the previous vicar of St Joseph's ended up in a psychiatric hospital Bordeaux Paul Torday, 2009-01-12 A novel about a wine enthusiast's descent into addiction and the cheerful face that money can put on an unhappy life Publishers Weekly After dedicating countless hours to building his software company an effort that yields him a fortune Wilberforce walks into a London restaurant alone and orders an extraordinarily expensive 1982 Chateau Pichon Longueville Pauillac It is quite an experience so he asks for another bottle From the acclaimed author of Salmon Fishing in the Yemen this novel traces the journey that leads Wilberforce from the top of the world to hitting rock bottom as he revels in his newfound wealth and more his taste for the finer things a love affair and a variety of friendships including one with an eccentric and enigmatic wine merchant named Francis Black At some point along the way Wilberforce once an ordinary middle class child and then a driven lonely workaholic convinces himself that he's finally found the good life But as his story unspools he learns that Black's cellar holds some unpalatable secrets and that passion comes at a price A heart wrenching tale A mesmerising page turner The Mail on Sunday Although Wilberforce's tale carries universal moral significance wine lovers in particular will find Torday's descriptive and narrative powers compelling Booklist Two Eerie Tales of Suspense Paul Torday, 2014-10-09 Two creepy spine tingling tales from the masterful storyteller and author of R J book club selected SALMON FISHING IN THE YEMEN In BREAKFAST AT THE HOTEL D J VU Bobby Clarke arrives at a hotel on the Mediterranean shore A former MP unseated by the expenses scandal he is spending time abroad to recover from a major illness The other purpose of his stay is to write his memoirs in order to demonstrate that he was unfairly treated having valiantly served his country for 30 years He settles into his new surroundings but it soon becomes clear that all is not as it seems For a start Bobby seems to have no memory of the immediate past Each time he sits down to continue his memoirs he finds only a blank page Every morning as he comes downstairs the same scene replays itself in front of him a young woman and her son pass him on the stairs And what has become of his wife In THEO John Elliott is the recently appointed vicar of St Joseph s a dilapidated church with a congregation of 16 and a leaky roof Having entered the Church more by default than through any great calling he struggles to inject some life into his ailing parish His wife Christine longs for them to escape the endless rounds of coffee mornings and cake sales Then Theo a child at her school starts to exhibit strange marks on his hands and feet that vanish almost as soon as they have appeared What has produced these marks is it physical violence or something stranger And what really did happen to the previous vicar of St Joseph s The Irresistible Inheritance of Wilberforce Paul Torday,2008 Chronicling the vintage years of Wilberforce s life this is a haunting story of obsession and addiction of loyalty and betrayal Taste as Experience Nicola Perullo,2016-04-05 Taste as Experience puts the pleasure of food at the center of human experience It shows how the sense of taste informs our preferences for and relationship to nature pushes us toward ethical practices of consumption and impresses upon us the importance of aesthetics Eating is often dismissed as a necessary aspect of survival and our personal enjoyment of food is considered a quirk Nicola Perullo sees food as the only portion of the world we take in on a daily basis constituting our first and most significant encounter with the earth Perullo has long observed people s food practices and has listened to their food experiences He draws on years of research to explain the complex meanings behind our food choices and the thinking that accompanies our gustatory actions He also considers our indifference toward food as a force influencing us as much as engagement For Perullo taste is value and wisdom It cannot be reduced to mere chemical or cultural factors but embodies the quality and quantity of our earthly experience Epistemology Nicola Perullo,2020-12-08 We think we know how to appreciate wine trained connoisseurs take dainty sips in sterile rooms and provide ratings based on objective knowledge and technical expertise In Epistemology Nicola Perullo vigorously challenges this approach arguing that it is the enjoyment of drinking wine as an active and participatory experience that matters Perullo argues that wine comes to life not in the abstract space of the professional tasting but in the real world of shared experiences wines can change in these encounters and drinkers along with them Just as a winemaker is not simply a producer but a nurturer a wine is fully known only through an encounter among a group of drinkers in a specific place and time Wine is not an object to analyze but an experience to make creatively opening up new perceptual possibilities for settings cuisines and companions The result of more than twenty years of research and practical engagement Epistemology presents a new paradigm for the enjoyment of wine and through it a philosophy based on participatory and relational knowledge This model suggests a profound shift not knowledge about but with wine Interweaving philosophical arguments with personal reflections and literary examples this book is a journey with wine that shows how it makes life more creative and free The Death of an Owl Paul Torday, Piers Torday, 2016-04-14 bestselling author of SALMON FISHING IN THE YEMEN Bobby Clarke arrives at a hotel on the Mediterranean shore He is a former MP unseated by the expenses scandal who is now spending time abroad to recover from a major illness The other purpose of his stay is to write his memoirs in order to demonstrate that he was unfairly pilloried for a minor accounting error having valiantly served his country for 30 years He settles into his new surroundings but soon it becomes clear that all is not as it seems For a start Bobby seems to have no memory of the immediate past Each time he sits down to continue his memoirs he finds only a blank page Every morning as he comes downstairs the same scene replays itself in front of him a young woman and her son pass him on the stairs And what has become of his wife Narratives of Addiction Kevin

McCarron,2022-01-03 Narratives of Addiction Savage Usury is the first book to argue in the face of more than a century s received wisdom that drug addiction and alcoholism are undoubtedly evidence of individual moral flaws However the sense of morality that underlies this book is completely severed from Christianity Instead it is influenced in particular by the writings of the nineteenth century German philosophers Arthur Schopenhauer and Frederick Nietzsche both of whom insisted that a genuine morality was actually incompatible with Christianity The sequence of chapters moves from addictions on the streets into rehab clinics and finally into the meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous This is the first book to argue that the search for pleasure drives alcoholism and drug addiction and not the numbing of pain Throughout the book I reject the claims of the medical profession as embodied by the American Medical Association that drug addiction and alcoholism are diseases and further argue that they do not have the authority to tell hundreds of millions of Americans that addiction is not a moral failing I also query throughout the book the claims of neuroscience psychology and the social sciences that addictions to alcohol and drugs are attributable to causes that their specific disciplines are best suited to understand I argue that there is nothing complex about addiction it is a simple behavioural disorder The language routinely employed to discuss addiction is similarly not complex just confused and so it is also the rhetoric of addiction discourse especially its use of simile metaphor and euphemism that this book evaluates Light Shining in the Forest Paul
