Brent D. Slife, 2007-11-08 Taking Sides Clashing Views on Psychological Issues Fifteenth Edition is a debate style reader designed to introduce students to controversies on psychological issues. The readings which represent the arguments of leading psychologists, educators, and researchers reflect opposing positions and have been selected for their liveliness and substance and because of their value in a debate framework. For each issue, the editor provides a concise introduction and challenge questions. The introduction sets the stage or the debate as it is argued in the yes and no readings. The challenge questions provoke further examination of the issue. The editor also provides additional suggested readings on the controversial issue under discussion. By requiring students to analyze contradictory positions and reach considered judgments, Taking Sides actively develops students' critical thinking skills. It is this development of critical thinking skills that is the ultimate purpose of each of the volumes in the widely acclaimed Taking Sides program. Book jacket Taking Sides: Clashing Views in Mass Media and Society Alison Alexander, Jarice Hanson, 2010-02-23 This volume presents current controversial issues surrounding mass media and society in a debate style format designed to stimulate student interest and develop critical thinking skills. Mass media refers collectively to all media technologies including the Internet, television, newspapers, and radio which are used for mass communications and to the organizations which control these technologies. This topic is framed with a general summary and introduction and a postscript or challenge questions. This work features an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites and an online instructor's resource guide with testing material available. The readings which represent the arguments of leading scholars and media commentators discuss topics such as the media's relationship with the public, freedom of speech, and the future of media and media technologies. Principles of Environmental Science William P. Cunningham, Mary Ann Cunningham, 2009 A discussion of how science can help us find solutions for important environmental issues. Each chapter starts with an opening vignette of an environmental problem showing the principles to be presented in the text. Taking Sides, 2010 Taking Sides: Clashing Views in Criminal Justice Thomas J. Hickey, 2005-12-14 This debate style reader introduces students to current controversies in the field of criminal justice. The readings are written by scholars and experts in the field and reflect a variety of viewpoints presented in a pro/con format. Topics include gun control, continued criminalization of drug use, the Miranda ruling, police lineups, plea bargaining, jury nullification, the three strikes rule, and prisoner rights. Taking Sides: Clashing Views on Controversial Issues in Religion Daniel Judd, 2002-11-26 This debate style reader introduces students to controversial issues in religion through paired pro and con articles on such issues as the existence of evil, the doctrine of salvation, abortion, and cloning, the theory of evolution, justifications for war, and the sanctity of the family.
