Yahweh's Elegant Speeches of the Abrahamic Narratives Matthew Michael,2014-05-14 This work is a study in the attribution aesthetics and representations of Yahweh's speeches in the Hebrew Bible. It describes the literary elegance and beauty of the speeches of Yahweh in the Abrahamic narratives. Employing a synchronic reading of the Abrahamic cycle, it underscores the presence of various literary devices in the divine speeches: 12:1-9, 13:1-18, 15:1-21, 17:1-27, 18:1-33, and 22:1-19. Specifically, it engages the high concentration literary effects and use of metaphors, metaphoric language, similes, alliterations, wordplays, euphemisms, hyperboles, repetitions, allusions, and other distinctive literary features in the speeches of Yahweh, which are deliberately denied and glaringly absent in the speeches of the other main characters of the Abrahamic narratives, e.g., Abraham, Sarah, and Hagar. Similarly, it demonstrates the importance of these elevated speeches in the narrative world of Abrahamic epic. Most importantly, it also highlights the ideological significance of these decorated speeches of Yahweh to the original audience of the narrator who presumably identified with their excessive optimism and rhetoric. Consequently, this book is a pioneering work in the contemporary study of stylistics, characterizations, and functions of attributed speeches in the Hebrew narratives.

The Poetry of Pop Adam Bradley, 2017-03-28. A trailblazing exploration of the poetic power of popular songs from Tin Pan Alley to the Beatles to Beyoncé and beyond. Encompassing a century of recorded music, this pathbreaking book reveals the poetic artistry of popular songs. Pop songs are music first. They also comprise the most widely disseminated poetic expression of our time. Adam Bradley traces the song lyric across musical genres from early twentieth-century Delta blues to mid-century rock n' roll to today's hits. George and Ira Gershwin's Fascinating Rhythm, The Rolling Stones' I Can't Get No Satisfaction, Rihanna's Diamonds. These songs are united in their exacting attention to the craft of language and sound. Bradley shows that pop music is a poetry that must be heard more than read, uncovering the rhythms, rhymes, and metaphors expressed in the singing voice. At once a work of musical interpretation, cultural analysis, literary criticism, and personal storytelling, this book illustrates how words and music come together to produce compelling poetry, often where we least expect it.

I, You, and the Word "God" Sarah Zhang,2016-11-03 I You and the Word God introduces the approach of lyrical ethics inspired by Emmanuel Levinas's ethical phenomenological philosophy Through the optics of lyrical ethics the reader discovers how the ancient erotic poems of the Song of Songs bear ethical and theological significance for contemporary readers Levinas's intertwined concepts oneself qua sensibility otherness perceived through responsibility and transcendence embodied in one's love for the other reveal themselves as lyrical colors woven into the fabric of Song 4 1 7 5 2 8 and 8 6 More importantly Levinas's understanding that poetic language breaks the tautology of logocentric discourse and gestures to the outside of consciousness provides the theoretical ground for the listener to solicit meaningfulness from the Song Through this lyrical reading of the selected poetic units the book demonstrates that the traditional interpretive methods of representative description narrative paraphrase and thematic distillation fail to encounter the otherness of poetry In contrast lyrical ethics pays attention to that which transcends consciousness the awakening of the reader's subjectivity the saying underlying the said the sound of the sense and the invisibility of the visible The Song so caressed reveals in human love the purposelessly purposive encounter with God
