Pena,1998 Study Abroad 2006-2007 Unesco,2006 Study Abroad 2006 2007 contains some 2 900 entries concerning post secondary education and training in all academic and professional fields in countries throughout the world Key features include information on Study opportunities and financial assistance available to students wishing to study in a foreign country National systems of higher education Open and distance learning ODL opportunities Validation of foreign qualifications How to search for quality institutions of higher education including warnings about bogus institutions This is a trilingual edition French English Spanish Educational Technology in Practice Wanjira Kinuthia,Stewart Marshall,2010-05-01 The field of educational technology is one that requires a high level of problem solving critical thinking and interpersonal skills to solve problems that are often complex and multi dimensional Analyzing cases provides an opportunity to explore professional issues through an environment that allows action researchers practitioners and students to analyze and reflect on relevant theories and techniques to understand a real problem ponder solutions and consequences and develop responses Hence this book seeks to provide relevant authentic and realistic cases for such exploration This book is guided by the premise that the cases presented will serve as a platform for researchers practitioners and students to share experiences and best practices in both developing and developed contexts in an endeavor to bridge the knowledge divide Throughout the book various challenges are addressed and educational technology tools and strategies are subsequently employed in an effort to minimize the issues Notwithstanding the book also highlights successes and accomplishments in areas and contexts in which educational technology is being harnessed including reaching more learners providing more affordable options and building capacity Because of the interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary nature of the field and the cases this book is useful not only in educational technology but also in other fields A Facilitator Guide is provided for each chapter for educators with their learners Estudios en El Extranjero Unesco,1999 Study Abroad presents information on scholarships university courses training continuing education programs student employment information on handicapped facilities This edition contains 2 908 entries concerning post secondary education in all fields in 120 countries territories Recommended in ALA s Guide to Reference Books Walford s Guide to Reference Material The University of Papua New Guinea Vincent Lynn Meek,1982 A case study of the first 10 years of the University of Papua New Guinea is presented with attention focused on the function structure and character of a new university in a newly independent nation The analysis is based on the three issues of adaptation conflict and change and the case study is designed to test how well past social theories fit the reality of a new university in a Melanesian environment which is characterized by oral transmission of culture an agricultural economy until recently and its history as a colony The establishment of the University difficulties with the Australian Department of Territories early university leaders and various kinds of struggles are described Additional considerations include the contribution of staff to the educational and political life of the colony and new nation problems facing new students social problems arising from bringing together sometimes antagonistic people and the special problems of the small minority of women on campus Finally the complex organization of the university and the external environment are examined including the challenge of reconciling the problems of local relevance with the demands of international standards of scholarship The methodological and theoretical frameworks for the analysis are also discussed SW

Tropical Forests Of Oceania Joshua A. Bell, Paige West, Colin Filer, 2015-08-31 The tropical forests of Oceania are an enduring source of concern for indigenous communities for the migrants who move to them for the states that encompass them within their borders for the multilateral institutions and aid agencies and for the non governmental organisations that focus on their conservation Grounded in the perspective of political ecology contributors to this volume approach forests as socially alive spaces produced by a confluence of local histories and global circulations In doing so they collectively explore the multiple ways in which these forests come into view and therefore into being Exploring the local dynamics within and around these forests provides an insight into regional issues that have global resonance Intertwined as they are with cosmological beliefs and livelihoods as sites of biodiversity and Western desire these forests have been and are still being transformed by the interaction of foreign and local entities Focusing on case studies from Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and the Gambier Islands this volume brings new perspectives on how Pacific Islanders continue to creatively engage with the various processes at play in and around their forests
