BUSINESS RESEARCH METHODS

Eighth Edition

Business Research Methods, 8e by Zikmund/Babin/Carr/Griffin teaches you the practice of business marketing research. The text focuses on traditional business research methods as well as on the use of the Internet to conduct business research including research information systems, secondary data gathering, survey design, sample selection, Web traffic monitoring, and many more topics.

- Survey This! — Useful for critiquing the construction of questionnaires, Survey This! uses Qualtrics software to survey your opinions, activities, and interests related to careers in business. You can also use the software to design your own questionnaires.
- Tips of the Trade — These important tips address practical questions such as interview length, question wording, interviewer involvement, sample size requirements, and guides for data reliability and validity as well as useful tips for testing hypotheses using inferential statistics.
- Greater Breadth of Business Coverage — This edition includes examples across a broader spectrum of business activities and touches on practically all areas of business including marketing, management, finance, and accounting. The examples reflect the diversity of today's business world.
