Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa. It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20. It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa. Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant, there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon. This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post-Apartheid foreign policy. Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa, Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts, the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail. The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive, including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy, peace making, defence and security, bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa, bilateral relations with the US, China, Britain, France and Japan, the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN, the BRICS economic grouping, the African Caribbean and Pacific Group (ACP) as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization (WTO). An essential resource for researchers, the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies, foreign policy, history, international relations, international law, security studies, political economy and development studies.

Ambivalent Patricia Hayes, Gary Minkley, 2019-11-12 Going beyond photography as an isolated medium to engage larger questions and interlocking forms of expression and historical analysis, Ambivalent gathers a new generation of scholars based on the continent to offer an expansive frame for thinking about questions of photography and visibility in Africa. The volume presents African relationships with photography and with visibility more generally in ways that engage and disrupt the easy categories and genres that have characterized the field to date. Contributors pose new questions concerning the instability of the identity photograph in South Africa, ethnographic photographs as potential history, humanitarian discourse from the perspective of photographic survivors of atrocity, photojournalism, the nuanced passage from studio to screen in postcolonial digital portraiture and the burgeoning visual activism in West Africa. As the contributors show, photography is itself a historical subject; it involves arrangement, financing, posture, positioning and other kinds of work that are otherwise invisible. By moving us outside the frame of the photograph itself by refusing to accept the photograph as the last word, this book makes photography an engaging and important subject of historical investigation. Ambivalent's contributors bring photography into conversation with orality, travel, writing, ritual, psychoanalysis and politics, with new approaches to questions of race, time and postcolonial and decolonial histories. Contributors: George Emeka Agbo, Isabelle de Rezende, Jung Ran, Forte Ingrid, Masondo Phindi, Mnyaka Okechukwu, Nwafor Vilho, Shigwedha Napandulwe, Shiweda Drew, Thompson.

Annual Report Zimbabwe Investment Authority, ICT in Agriculture (Updated Edition) World Bank, 2017-06-27 Information and communication technology (ICT) has always mattered in agriculture. Ever since people have grown crops, raised livestock and caught fish, they have sought information from one another. Today, ICT represents a tremendous opportunity for rural populations to improve productivity, to enhance food and nutrition security, to access markets and to find employment opportunities in a revitalized sector ICT has unleashed incredible potential to improve agriculture and it has found a foothold even in poor smallholder farms ICT in Agriculture Updated Edition is the revised version of the popular ICT in Agriculture e Sourcebook first launched in 2011 and designed to support practitioners decision makers and development partners who work at the intersection of ICT and agriculture Our hope is that this updated Sourcebook will be a practical guide to understanding current trends implementing appropriate interventions and evaluating the impact of ICT interventions in agricultural programs

Intellectual Property Policy, Law and Administration in Africa Caroline B. Ncube, 2015-10-16 This book examines the harmonisation of Intellectual Property IP policy law and administration in Africa Two recent developments have brought this topic to the fore The first is the escalation of long standing efforts to establish a Pan African Intellectual Property Organisation PAIPO a continental initiative The second is the current sub regional attempt to operationalise the IP provisions of the Southern African Development Community SADC s Protocol on Trade articles 9b and 24 and its Protocol on Science Technology and Innovation article 2m Intellectual Property Policy Law and Administration in Africa discusses the viability of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of Africa s nations With a view to contributing to future developments in Africa at both a continental and sub regional level the author considers this issue through the lens of advancing the public interest in IP Ncube argues that harmonisation initiatives ought to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the development aspirations of African states Consequently she urges due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations in any harmonisation venture a necessity outlined in article 7 of the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in IP law and African law in general

Citizenship in Africa Bronwen Manby, 2018-11-29 Citizenship in Africa provides a comprehensive exploration of nationality laws in Africa placing them in their theoretical and historical context It offers the first serious attempt to analyse the impact of nationality law on politics and society in different African states from a trans continental comparative perspective Taking a four part approach Parts I and II set the book within the framework of existing scholarship on citizenship from both sociological and legal perspectives and examine the history of nationality laws in Africa from the colonial period to the present day Part III considers case studies which illustrate the application and misapplication of the law in practice and the relationship of legal and political developments in each country Finally Part IV explores the impact of the law on politics and its relevance for questions of identity and belonging today concluding with a set of issues for further research Ambitious in scope and compelling in analysis this is an important new work on citizenship in Africa

Seeking Urban Transformation Muchadenyika, Davison, 2020-02-16 Seeking Urban Transformation Alternative Urban Futures in Zimbabwe tells the stories of ordinary people s struggles to remake urban centres It interrogates and highlights the principle conditions in which urban transformation takes place The main catalysts of the transformation are social movements and planning institutions Social movements pool resources and skills acquire land install infrastructure and build houses Planning institutions change policies regulations and traditions to embrace and support a new form of urban development driven by grassroots movements Besides providing a comprehensive analysis of planning and housing in Zimbabwe there is a specific focus on three urban centres of Harare Chitungwiza and Epworth In metropolitan Harare the books examines new housing and infrastructure series to the predominantly urban poor population vital roles played by the urban poor in urban development and the adoption by planning institutions of grassroots centered urban planning approaches The book draws from three case studies and in depth interviews from diverse urban shapers i e representatives and members of social movements urban planners engineers surveyors policy makers politicians civil society workers and students to generate a varied selection of insights and experiences Based on the Zimbabwean experience the book illustrates how actions and power of ordinary people contributes to the transformation of African cities African Initiated Christianity and the Decolonisation of Development Philipp Öhlmann,Wilhelm Gräb,Marie-Luise Frost,2020-01-07 This book investigates the substantial and growing contribution which African Independent and Pentecostal Churches are making to sustainable development in all its manifold forms Moreover this volume seeks to elucidate how these churches reshape the very notion of sustainable development and contribute to the decolonisation of development Fostering both overarching and comparative perspectives the book includes chapters on West Africa Nigeria Ghana and Burkina Faso and Southern Africa Zimbabwe and South Africa It aims to open up a subfield focused on African Initiated Christianity within the religion and development discourse substantially broadening the scope of the existing literature Written predominantly by scholars from the African continent the chapters in this volume illuminate potentials and perspectives of African Initiated Christianity combining theoretical contributions essays by renowned church leaders and case studies focusing on particular churches or regional contexts While the contributions in this book focus on the African continent the notion of development underlying the concept of the volume is deliberately wide and multidimensional covering economic social ecological political and cultural dimensions Therefore the book will be useful for the community of scholars interested in religion and development as well as researchers within African studies anthropology development studies political science religious studies sociology of religion and theology It will also be a key resource for development policymakers and practitioners Freedom in the World 2017 Freedom House,2017-12-21 Freedom in the World the Freedom House flagship survey whose findings have been published annually since 1972 is the standard setting comparative assessment of global political rights and civil liberties The survey ratings and narrative reports on 195 countries and fifteen territories are used by policymakers the media international corporations civic activists and human rights defenders to monitor trends in democracy and track improvements and setbacks in freedom worldwide The Freedom in the World political rights and civil liberties ratings are determined through a multi layered process of research and evaluation by a team of regional analysts and eminent scholars The analysts used a broad range of sources of information including foreign and domestic news reports academic studies nongovernmental organizations think tanks individual professional contacts and visits to the region in conducting their research The methodology of the survey is derived in large measure from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and these standards are applied to all countries and territories irrespective of geographical location ethnic or religious composition or level of economic development Democracy, Elections, and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2021-03-18 The third wave of democracy that reached African shores at the end of the Cold War brought with it a dramatic decline from 1990 onwards in dictatorships military regimes one party governments and presidents for life Multiparty democracy was at the core of the constitutional revolutions that swept through most of Africa in those watershed years However that wave is either losing momentum or receding or being reversed in its entirety This volume examines democracy and elections in Africa a focus motivated by two concerns First after 30 years it is important to take stock of the state of constitutional democracy on the continent The democratic gains of the 1990s and 2000s seem to be falling by the wayside with the evidence mounting that regimes are concealing authoritarianism under the veneer of elections doing so in an international context where populist regimes are on the rise and free and fair multiparty elections are consequently no longer a given It is becoming a battle to protect and retain constitutional democracy The second reason for this volume s focus on democracy and elections is that multiparty democracy is essential for the proper functioning of the state in addressing the major problems facing Africa internal conflict inequality and lack of development and poor governance and corruption The focus of this volume is thus on how competitive politics or multiparty democracy can be realized and how through competition such politics could lead to better policy and practice outcomes
