Burney,2013-06-25 Amanda Bell Brown knows that life as a forensic psychologist isn't quite as cool as it looks on primetime TV. But when she turns 35 with no husband or baby on the horizon she decides she has to get out and paint the town in her drop dead red birthday dress. Thin Places Mary E. DeMuth,2010-01-13 In her moving spiritual memoir Mary DeMuth traces the winding path of thin places in her life places where she experienced longing and healing more intensely than before. As DeMuth writes Thin places are snatches of holy ground tucked into the corners of our world where we might just catch a glimpse of eternity. They are aha moments beautiful realizations when the Son of God bursts through the hazy fog of our monotony and shines on us afresh. From losing her earthly father to discovering a heavenly Father who never leaves from singing Olivia Newton John songs to the sky to worshiping God under a French sun from surviving abuse as a latchkey kid to experiencing the joy of mothering three children DeMuth's story calls readers to a deeper understanding of their own story. With unusual spiritual wisdom she looks for God in the past so that she might experience him more profoundly in the present. Her powerful words invite readers to know God in a new way a God ready to break through any ordinary day or extraordinary pain and offer a glimpse of eternity.

SistahFaith ,2010-02-02 Ashamed No More Every woman needs a safe place to bleed a quiet place to scream and friends to dress her wounds. She needs the support of sistahs who won't cringe at the honest truth who are willing to walk by her side who will listen to her stories and who will offer balm to heal her wounds. This collection of poignant true stories honestly reflects the humiliation that countless women experience every day at the hands of people who are supposed to love them. Drawing from the biblical story of Tamar who was raped and disgraced by her own brother spiritual truths of hope healing and new beginnings are highlighted in every story. Among the women who have shared their stories of truth and triumph are Bonnie DeBarge of the famed Motown group the DeBarges award winning novelist Sharon Ewell Foster and author Claudia Mair Burney. Most women endure in silence afraid to tell the truth held captive by their disgrace. But here in these pages they have told the truth they have lifted their skirts to show their scars and most important of all they have found redemption hope and new life. Your Own SistahFaith Circle. In addition to sharing beautifully written stories and poems this book shows you how to gather your own group of sistahs and each chapter includes discussion questions that will help your gathering of sistahs journey past the shame beyond rejection and straight to the heart of God.
