Societal Entrepreneurship Karin Berglund,Bengt

Johannisson, Birgitta Schwartz, 2012-01-01 Entrepreneurship generally is about creative organizing but with social enterprising this is especially so Most social ventures cross the boundaries between the private the public and the non profit voluntary sectors This broad involvement of actors and intertwining of sectors makes the label societal entrepreneurship appropriate Stating the importance of both the local and the broader societal context the book reports close up studies from a variety of social ventures Generic themes include positioning societal entrepreneurship against other images of collective entrepreneurship critically penetrating its assumptions and practices and proposing ways of promoting societal entrepreneurship more widely Providing a new conceptual framework and research methodology this compendium will prove insightful for academic scholars The basic concepts and illustrative cases stories will also appeal to students and reflective practitioners

Public Speaking Ethel C. Glenn, Sandra H. Forman, 1990 Indigenous Tourism Michelle Aicken, Chris Ryan, 2010-02-17 In a world characterized by an encroaching homogeneity induced by the growth of multi national corporations and globalization the causes of difference accrue new levels of importance This is as true of tourism as in many other spheres of life and one cause of differentiation for tourism promotion is the culture of Indigenous Peoples This offers opportunities for cultural renaissance income generation and enhanced political empowerment but equally there are possible costs of creating commodities out of aspects of life that previously possessed spiritual meaning This book examines these issues from many different perspectives from those of product design and enhancement of the aspirations of various minority groupings and the patterns of displacements that occur displacements that are not simply spatial but also social and cultural How can these changes be managed Case studies and analysis is offered derived from many parts of the globe including North America Asia and Australasia The contributors themselves have in many instances worked closely with groups and organizations of Indigenous Peoples and attempt to give voice to their concerns The book is divided into various themes each with a separate introduction and commentary The themes are Visitor Experiences Who manages Indigenous Cultural Tourism Product Events and Artifacts Conceptualisation and Aspiration In a short final section the silences are noted each silence representing a potential challenge for future research to build upon the notions and lessons reported in the book The book is edited by Professor Chris Ryan from New Zealand and Michelle Aicken of Horwath Asia Pacific The Routledge

Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology Jonathan P. J. Stock, Beverley Diamond, 2022-11-30 The Routledge Companion to Ethics and Research in Ethnomusicology is an in depth survey of the moral challenges and imperatives of conducting research on people making music It focuses on fundamental and compelling ethical questions that have challenged and shaped both the history of this discipline and its current practices In 26 representative cases from across a broad spectrum of geographical societal and musical environments authors collectively reflect on the impacts of ethnomusicological research exploring the ways our work may instantiate privilege or risk bringing harm as well as the means that are available to provide recognition benefit and reciprocation to the musicians and others who contribute to our studies In a world where differing ethical values are often in conflict and where music itself is meanwhile a powerful tool in projecting moral claims we aim to uncover the conditions and consequences of the ethical choices we face as ethnomusicologists thereby contributing to building a more engaged restructured discipline and a more globally responsible music studies The volume comprises four parts 1 sound practices and philosophies of ethics 2 fieldwork encounters 3 environment trauma collaboration and 4 research in public domains Social Justice and the World of Work Brian Langille, Anne Trebilcock, 2023-02-23 In this book leading international thinkers take up the demanding challenge to rethink our understanding of social justice at work and our means for achieving it at a time when global forces are tearing the familiar fabric of our working lives and the laws regulating them When fabric is torn we can see deeply into it understand its structural weaknesses and imagine alterations in the name of resilience and sustainability Seizing that opportunity the authoritative commentators examine the lessons revealed by the pandemic and other global shocks for our ideas about justice at work and how to advance that cause in the world as we now find it The chapters deliver critical re assessments of our goals explore our new challenges and creatively re imagine trajectories for progress on two global fronts via international institutions and by a myriad of other transnational techniques These forward looking essays are in honour of Francis Maupain whose international career and scholarly writing are inspiring models for those who in a changing world seize opportunities for creativity in the pursuit of global justice at work The Very Long Game Heiko Borchert, Torben Schütz, Joseph Verbovsky, 2024-07-18 This open access book is the outcome of a unique multinational effort organized by the Hamburg based Defense AI Observatory DAIO to portray the current state of affairs regarding the use of artificial intelligence AI by armed forces around the world The contributions span a diverse range of geostrategic contexts by providing in depth case studies on Australia Canada China Denmark Estonia Finland France Germany Greece India Iran Israel Italy Japan the Netherlands Russia Singapore South Korea Spain Sweden Taiwan Turkey Ukraine the UK and the United States The book does not speculate about the future implications of AI on armed forces but rather discusses how armed forces are currently exploring the potential of this emerging technology By adopting a uniform analytical framework each case study discusses how armed forces view defense AI how they are developing AI enhanced solutions adapting existing structures and processes and funding their defense AI endeavors to what extent defense AI is already fielded and operated and how soldiers and officers are being trained to work with AI Focus On Festivals Chris Newbold, Christopher Maughan, Jennie Jordan, Franco Bianchini, 2015-01-31 A powerful and unique case study focused theoretically rigorous and pan European approach of our most ubiquitous cultural phenomena festivals Edited by a hugely expert and experienced team of editors and authors drawn from across Europe and is based on the groundbreaking work of the European Festival Research Project EFRP Interpreting Anniversaries and Milestones at Museums and Historic Sites Kimberly A.
