In the Beginning, Exodus Andrew P. Porter, 2008-01-01 How did the Bible come to be written How did Israelite religion grow out of the surrounding cultures How did Israelite religion become Christianity and rabbinic Judaism How did scholars discover this history in the last two centuries This book is about such questions and about the ways that Christianity in the modern world became confused looking for acts of God in the interstices of natural causation rather than in the living in history in which the Bible was born The modern challenges to Christianity are historicism relativism and pluralism and Christianity can learn to receive them as blessings and as offers of grace as old friends not as new enemies

Self as Person in Asian Theory and Practice Roger T. Ames, Wimal Dissanayake, Thomas P. Kasulis, 1994-01-25 This book is a sequel to Self as Body in Asian Theory and Practice SUNY 1992 and anticipates a third book Self as Image in Asian Theory and Practice In order to address issues as diverse as the promotion of human rights or the resolution of sexism in ways that avoid inadvertent lapses into cultural chauvinism alternative cultural perspectives that begin from differing conceptions of self and self realization must be articulated and respected This book explores the articulation of personal character within the disparate cultural experiences of Japan China and South Asia

Last Words Karl S. Guthke, 1992-10-30 Whether Goethe actually cried More light on his deathbed or whether Conrad Hilton checked out of this world after uttering Leave the shower curtain on the inside of the tub

last words regardless of authenticity have long captured the imagination of Western society In this playfully serious investigation based on factual accounts anecdotes literary works and films Karl Guthke explores the cultural importance of those words spoken at the border between this world and the next The exit lines of both famous and ordinary people embody for us a sense of drama and truthfulness and reveal much about our thoughts on living and dying Why this interest in last words Presenting statements from such figures as Socrates Nathan Hale Marie Antoinette and Oscar Wilde I am dying as I have lived beyond my means Guthke examines our fascination in terms of our need for closure our desire for immortality and our attraction to the mystique of death scenes The author considers both authentic and invented final statements as he looks at the formation of symbols and legends and their function in our culture Last words handed down from generation to generation like cultural heirlooms have a good chance of surviving in our collective memory They are shown to epitomize a life convey a sense of irony or play to an audience as in the case of the assassinated Mexican revolutionary Pancho Villa who is said to have died imploring journalists Don't let it end like this Tell them I said something Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

It's Not You Cara D. Smith, 2021-08-26 Broody bad boy Ryan LeDoux is hotter than a Houston sidewalk in July And I'm pretty sure he hates my guts My overprotective mother hates that I even know his name Any association with him might tarnish my reputation He's definitely not the kind of guy she keeps setting me up with in her ongoing effort to prevent her past from becoming my future She doesn't talk about it but I'm pretty sure my father was a bad boy too But I've never met him I've resigned myself to being some guy's trophy wife And really it's the smart thing to do The safe thing But before that happens I want just one night with someone who makes me feel something Someone who will kiss me like I've seen my friends' husbands kiss them when they think no one will notice and who can't keep his hands off me someone like Ryan But not Ryan for obvious reasons Fate is funny sometimes though A work assignment puts me on a collision course with Mr LeDoux One on one I discover he s not who I thought he was And he doesn t hate me at all A fact that becomes painfully obvious when I finally work up the courage to approach him about that one night and he shoots me down Not because he s not interested but because one night wouldn t be enough And he doesn t think he s good enough for me Can I find the courage to live life on my own terms and go after what I really want Cinepaternity Helena Goscilo,Yana Hashamova,2010-03-30 This wide ranging collection investigates the father son dynamic in post Stalinist Soviet cinema and its Russian successor Contributors analyze complex patterns of identification disavowal and displacement in films by such diverse directors as Khutsiev Motyl Tarkovsky Balabanov Sokurov Todorovskii Mashkov and Bekmambetov Several chapters focus on the difficulties of fulfilling the paternal function while others show how vertical and horizontal male bonds are repeatedly strained by the pressure of redefining an embattled masculinity in a shifting political landscape Sidney Nolan Nancy Underhill,2015-06-01 Digging through the myths around Australia s most famous artist many of which he created himself as a masterful self promoter this book is the biography that Sidney Nolan deserves In an authoritative insightful and often irreverent biography that fully charts Nolan s life and work Nancy Underhill peels back the layers from a complicated expedient and manipulative artistic genius She carries the story from Nolan s birth in 1917 to his death in 1992 tracing his early life his experience as a commercial artist his involvement in the Angry Penguins magazine his painting and set design his difficult marriages and friendships with some of the twentieth century s most famous figures Patrick White Albert Tucker Benjamin Britten Robert Lowell Stephen Spender and Kenneth Clark The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Deleuze and Guattari's 'Anti-Oedipus' Ian Buchanan,2008-02-05 Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari s Anti Oedipus is the first part of a two volume project entitled Capitalism and Schizophrenia Challenging the twin orthodoxies of Lacanian psychoanalysis and Althusserian Marxism Anti Oedipus is an important and exciting yet challenging piece of philosophical writing Ian Buchanan s Reader s Guide to Anti Oedipus is the ideal companion to one of the twentieth century s most influential philosophical works The Story of King David David M. Gunn,1978-01-01 Narrative Development in Adolescence Kate C. McLean,Monisha Pasupathi,2009-11-11 Monisha Pasupathi and Kate C McLean Where Have You Been Where Are You Going Narrative Identity in Adolescence How can we help youth move from childhood to adulthood in the most effective and positive way possible This is a question that parents educators researchers and policy makers engage with every day In this book we explore the potential power of the stories that youth construct as one route for such movement Our emphasis is on how those stories serve to build a sense of identity for youth and how the kinds of stories youth tell are informed by their broader contexts from parents and friends to nationalities and history Identity development and in part ular narrative identity development concerns the ways in which adolescents must integrate their past and present and articulate and anticipate their futures Erikson 1968 Viewed in this way identity development is not only unique to adolescence and emergent adulthood but also intimately linked to childhood and to adulthood The title for this chapter borrowed from the Joyce Carol Oates story highlights the precarious position of adolescence in relation to the construction of identity In this story the protagonist poised between childhood and adulthood navigates a series of encounters with relatively little awareness of either her childhood past or her potential adult futures Her choices are risky and her future at the end looks dark
