Vut 2015 Undergraduate Application Forms:

Enhancing Quality in Higher Education Ray Land, George Gordon, 2013-06-19 Interest in the quality of higher education provision has been steadily increasing over the last twenty years This has been driven largely by the international creation of explicit policies and reporting requirements to review audit and evaluate provision The interest is associated in many countries with the granting by governments of greater autonomy to higher education institutions This crucially comes bound with increased requirements for accountability in the exercise of such power Enhancing provision promoting innovation cultivating exploration and adopting information led approaches to practice are at the very heart of higher education As such quality enhancement comes in many guises and is under constant scrutiny Enhancing Quality in Higher Education looks critically at recent developments in higher education taking snapshots of changing practices around the world and analysing the varied theoretical perspectives of quality enhancement that are emerging The opening section draws upon this theoretical base whilst the second section contextualises it through the analysis of a diverse range of international case studies The concluding section considers future prospects for the enhancement agenda in the light of the international pressures facing all systems of higher education in the future Policy will inevitably be shaped by the historical contexts within which national systems are located The book draws on a wide range of international case studies examined by a host of contributing experts The movement towards quality enhancement can be seen as stimulating action at the grassroots of the academy to self generate improvement It is a counter to the prevalent view that change in higher education is essentially about the institutional response to increasing societal pressure and state control and as such is a welcome contribution to the literature This comprehensive volume is essential reading for anyone involved in higher education and educational policy

The Un Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and Its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz, Ruth Halperin-Kaddari, Beate Rudolf, Marsha A. Freeman, 2023-01-27 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women s rights At a time when the backlash against women s human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide The Future of Management Education Stéphanie Dameron,Thomas

Durand,2017-11-15 This book discusses the challenges facing business schools and management education systems around the world Based on documented descriptions of institutional and competitive dynamics in the industry of management education the authors show how management education is going through major changes such as new governance and business models mergers and acquisitions internationalisation of faculty and students coexisting with entrenchment in local markets ever more needs for financial resources development of distant and blended learning and increasing pressure for research output to boost rankings With concerns surrounding the sustainability of current trends in faculty salary inflation social acceptability of higher fees cost of distance learning and the risk of an academic industry divide around knowledge produced by management research The Future of Management Education develops an analysis of business models and discusses strategic implications for stakeholders The second volume extends the discussion to a total of 23 countries to bring a genuinely global perspective and move away from the Euro centric outlook The countries covered in the second volume include China Brazil Russia Singapore and France Urbanisation at Risk in the Pacific and Asia David

Sanderson,Laura Bruce,2020-05-05 This book presents practical approaches for tackling the threats from climate change and disasters to urban growth in Pacific island countries and Asian nations With chapters written by leading scholars and practitioners Urbanisation at Risk presents research and case studies from island countries across the Pacific Cambodia Nepal and the Philippines The book explores and presents the theory policy and practice of how governments civil society aid organisations and people themselves prepare for withstand and recover better from urban disasters including windstorms floods earthquakes and fires and the effects of climate change This book is written for urban policy makers researchers humanitarian aid and development workers and anyone interested in urbanisation participatory approaches disasters resilience and climate change adaptation Mathematical Methods in Engineering Joseph M. Powers,Mihir Sen,2015-01-26

This text focuses on a variety of topics in mathematics in common usage in graduate engineering programs including vector calculus linear and nonlinear ordinary differential equations approximation methods vector spaces linear algebra integral equations and dynamical systems The book is designed for engineering graduate students who wonder how much of their basic mathematics will be of use in practice Following development of the underlying analysis the book takes students through a large number of examples that have been worked in detail Students can choose to go through each step or to skip ahead if they so desire After seeing all the intermediate steps they will be in a better position to know what is expected of them when solving assignments examination problems and when on the job Chapters conclude with exercises for the student that reinforce the chapter content and help connect the subject matter to a variety of engineering problems Students have grown up with computer based tools including numerical calculations and computer graphics the worked out examples as well as the end of chapter exercises often use computers for numerical and symbolic computations and for graphical display of the results
