Dear Xavier,

I am very pleased that you have accepted our offer and are joining our team. Your experience and vision will be a great asset to this group, and I know that the team is looking forward to working with you.

Please let me know if you find that you are available to start sooner than May 1, as we are all anxious to get going on the new project we discussed during your interview.

Brian Jones will be your liaison with the other team leaders and will help get you up to speed on where their projects stand and how they envision integration of the final product. I know he is planning to contact you this week to help make your move to Corgu Inc. as smooth as possible.

If there is anything we can do for you in the meanwhile, please let me know. Welcome aboard! We are all looking forward to seeing you soon.

Best regards,

Welcome Aboard Letter For New Employee:

Flying Over the Pigpen D. Tieman, 2015-09-08 Growing up on a pork farm it seemed unlikely that Doug Tieman would reach his goal of becoming a CEO by the time he was 40 but he did By applying the lessons that he shares in this book and by working hard he succeeded After 25 years of working in the addictions field Tieman entered his own personal recovery That experience gave him an even greater understanding of the stories he had heard from others in recovery who shared what they went through and the efforts they made to pursue a life of abstinence He also realized that lessons that apply to life career achievement and recovery aren't all that different from one another Tieman believes that one of the issues many people face is an inability to conceptualize and take methodical steps towards actualizing career goals He also believes that if more people in recovery could do that it would bring them to a new level of success that ultimately might benefit the entire addictions field And that's exactly what this book succeeds in doing for its readers
