Kendale,2014-12-15 Spanning one thousand years three continents and several countries the writer s soul experiences a dozen lives Some are short and brutal some long and fruitful Always her soul is presented with lessons to be learned These lives encompass many of the emotions situations and tragedies that define the human condition Love and hate compassion and empathy murder rape suicide abandonment war betrayal unrequited and lost love drowning suffocation depression plague it s all there By embracing hypnotic past life regression the writer has learned to forgive many past wrongs and also allow others the opportunity to forgive her soul for wrongs committed She has been able to fix karma with a number of other souls who have incarnated with her again in this lifetime By enlarging upon the nugget of truth gleaned during regression she provides the reader with a series of vignettes that are evocative of the time and place in which she was living These short stories are followed with frank examinations of how the information she has been shown has helped her allowing her a compassionate understanding of many of the more difficult and challenging relationships she has experienced in this lifetime Part fiction but largely autobiographical this is a very personal reflection on the experience of hypnotic past life regression and the healing that it can provide It has a universality that will be accepted by those who believe in reincarnation and just enjoyed by those who do not

A literature of restitution Jeannette Baxter,Valerie Henitiuk,Ben Hutchinson,2015-11-01 This book investigates the crucial question of restitution in the work of W G Sebald Written by leading scholars from a range of disciplines with a foreword by his English translator Anthea Bell the essays collected in this volume place Sebald s oeuvre within the broader context of European culture in order to better understand his engagement with the ethics of aesthetics Whilst opening up his work to a range of under explored areas including dissident surrealism Anglo Irish relations contemporary performance practices and the writings of H G Adler the volume notably returns to the original German texts The recurring themes identified in the essays from Sebald s carefully calibrated syntax to his self consciousness about genre from his interest in liminal spaces to his literal and metaphorical preoccupation with blindness and vision all suggest that the attempt at restitution constitutes the very essence of Sebald s understanding of literature

Writing between the Lines Agnes Whitfield,2006-03-03 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada s most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Through individual portraits this book traces the events and life experiences that have led W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara Godard Susanne de Lotbiniere Harwood John Van Burek and Linda Gaboriau into the complex world of literary translation Each essay portrait examines why they chose to translate and what linguistic and cultural challenges they have faced in the practice of their art Following their relationships with authors and publishers the translators also reveal how they have defined the goals and the process of literary translation Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation
