This is a book about reading or rather about the moment when the usual frames of interpretation no longer apply That is where the Othering Excursion begins Through disruptive forms of rhetoric writers discard the structures and norms of the cultural system and use the disorders thus created to suggest what lies beyond it Cultivating distortion conceptual blocks and chaotic constructions their texts flout normal processes of interpretation Whereas traditional approaches often overlook these disorders or treat them as a form of informational noise in this study they become the basis of critical reflection Harding and Martin elaborate a critical concept and a range of reading methods to deal with what seem to be zones of obscurity in literary texts Cutting across boundaries of race ethnicity and gender they treat a wide range of poetry and short fiction that challenges traditional interpretations Giving new readings of canonical texts the book examines works by American authors that are widely read and taught like Elizabeth Bishop A R Ammons Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko or Sandra Cisneros At the same time it includes studies of emerging writers like Kate Braverman Dan Chaon or Chase Twichell

There is something deeply moving in witnessing the birth of a new concept And indeed Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin's concept of Othering is a welcome addition to an already crowded field where concepts like difference alterity or hybridity are firmly established But the new concept is more than an addition it is more in the nature of a substitution as it aims to replace the now exhausted concepts allows the authors to avoid the trivialities of a criticism based on gender and race and by focusing on form and language or style to recapture the now largely lost intuitions of close reading This combination of close reading and a firm grasp of theory is one of the attractions of the book I am impressed by their mastery of the intricacies of theory and the range of their literary corpus in terms both of genres and texts I have no doubt that their book will be a major contribution to the renewal of the study of contemporary American literature Professor Jean Jacques Lecercle University of Nanterre Paris In Beyond Words Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin offer a new attitude to reading that approaches true diversity by ignoring trends toward traditional groupings of authors by race and gender and instead examining democratically recent American literature in terms of its unique and peculiar achievements In choosing texts that employ the rhetoric of the inexpressible the authors have identified Othering as the common thread running through short fiction and poetry by authors as varied as Allen Ginsberg Raymond Carver Sandra Cisneros Adrienne Rich and Li Young Lee In transliterating the language of the ineffable and unspoken Beyond Words employs its superbly original methodology toward unfolding previously inaccessible layers of meaning and provoking a fuller understanding of the creative process and its cultural milieu Michael Waters Professor of English at Salisbury University USA A germinal study from an other in this case European perspective of an at once idiosyncratic and indicative range of American texts with a view of how they themselves encounter the unexamined and unexpected Marilyn Hacker Professor at City College of New York and CUNY Graduate Center Invigorating and original Beyond Words The Othering Excursion in Contemporary American Literature challenges conventional ways of approaching literary texts Eschewing binaries Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin propose a new approach to reading and analyzing the heterogeneity of recent American literature By juxtaposing both well known and less familiar poetry and short fiction by authors as various as Gayl Jones John Ashbery Russell Banks and Marilyn Nelson Harding and Martin consider a stimulating variety of texts that cross aesthetic generic canonical and political boundaries Harding and Martin's polysemous approach to literary texts a procedure they call othering is groundbreaking and enlightening Beyond Words provides rich insights for scholars and general readers alike Harding and Martin's new mapping of American literature is a remarkable achievement certain to provoke dialogue for decades to come Sue Standing Jane Ruby Professor of English Wheaton College Norton Massachusetts In this new book with the apt title Beyond Words the Othering Excursion in Contemporary American Literature Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin promise to generate intense conversation about their conceptual approach to reading canonical as well as newer texts in late twentieth century American literature Beyond Words favors a shift in thinking about all texts that defy conventional analysis and it resists the cleavages that it finds in unsatisfactory terms like alterity and hybridity conceived to account for differences in gender racial ethnic and class contexts Re conceiving Othering as a corroborative and complementary methodology rather than a splintered one Beyond Words invites an illuminating comprehensive analysis of literary production in late twentieth century American texts Helena Woodard Associate Professor of English Department of English University of Texas at Austin USA The Book That Changed My Life Diane Osen, 2011-06-15 Every reader can name at least one book that changed his or her life and many more beloved titles will surely come to mind as well In The Book That Changed My Life fifteen of America's most influential authors discuss their own special literary choices These unique interviews with National Book Award winners and finalists offer new insights into the many ways in which the experience of reading shapes the act of writing Robert Stone on Joseph Conrad's Victory Cynthia Ozick on Henry James's Washington Square Charles Johnson on Jack London's The Sea Wolf each approaches the question of literary influence while offering rich and wonderful revelations about his or her own writing career James Carroll Don DeLillo E L Doctorow Diane Johnson Philip Levine David Levering Lewis Barry Lopez David McCullough Alice McDermott Grace Paley Linda Pastan and Katherine Paterson are the other distinguished contributors to this collection of informed insightful interviews Other Country James Perrin Warren, 2015-12-03 The award winning American environmental writer Barry Lopez has traveled extensively in remote and populated parts of the world Lopez's fiction and nonfiction focus on the relationship between the physical landscape and human culture posing abiding questions about ethics intimacy and place Other Country presents a full scale treatment of Lopez's work James Perrin Warren examines the relationship between Lopez's writing and the work of several contemporary artists composers and musicians whose works range from landscape photography painting and graphic arts to earth art ceramics and avant garde music The author demonstrates Lopez's role in creating this community of artists who have led cultural change and shows that Lopez's writing and his engagement with the natural world creates an other country by redefining boundaries rediscovering a place and renewing our perceptions of landscapes Warren's critique examines manuscripts and typescripts from the 1960s to the present interviews with Lopez conducted from 2008 to 2013 and interviews with artists Part 1 focuses on the relationship between Lopez's storytelling which he calls a conversation with the land and Robert Adams's landscape photography For both Lopez and Adams a worthy artistic expression serves the cultural memory of a community reminding us how to behave properly toward other people and the land Part 2 looks at the collaborative friendship of Lopez and visual artist Alan Magee tracking the development of Lopez's short stories through a consideration of Magee's career Part 3 moves farther afield discussing Lopez's relationship to Richard Long's earth art Richard Rowland's ceramics and John Luther Adams's soundscapes Other Country reveals the dynamic relationships between Lopez considered by many the most important environmental writer working in America and the artistic community who seek to explore the spiritual and ethical dimensions of an honorable and attentive relationship to the land and thus offer profound implications for the future of the planet No

Thoughts from Wild Places award winning journalist David Quammen reminds us why he has become one of our most beloved science and nature writers This collection of twenty three of Quammen's most intriguing most exciting most memorable pieces introduces kayakers on the Futaleufu River of southern Chile where Quammen describes how it feels to travel in fast company and flail for survival in the river's maw Readers learn of the commerce in pearls and black market parrots in the Aru Islands of eastern Indonesia Quammen even finds wildness in smog choked Los Angeles embodied in an elusive population of urban coyotes too stubborn and too clever to surrender to the sprawl of civilization With humor and intelligence David Quammen's Wild Thoughts from Wild Places also reminds us that humans are just one of the many species on earth with motivations goals quirks and eccentricities Expect to be entertained and moved on this journey through the wilds of science and nature Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to

Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister The Interior Country Alexander Blackburn, Craig Lesley, Jill Landem, 1987 This book demonstrates the unique focus of modern Western literature upon the inner nuances of human experience rather than upon the traditional regional local color Eastern American social sphere or European manners For Love of the World Sherman

Paul,1992-10-01 Along with poets philosophers and deep ecologists nature writers who may be something of all three address the world alienation of Western civilization By example as well as with words they teach us to turn from the self to the world from ego to ecos In these deeply felt meditative essays Sherman Paul contemplates the cosmological homecoming of nature writers who show us how to reenter the world participate in it and recover respect for it In For Love of the World Sherman Paul considers Thoreau John Muir and Aldo Leopold major writers in the American tradition of nature writing Henry Beston and Loren Eiseley writers not yet so canonical and Richard Nelson and Barry Lopez our estimable contemporaries Paul s meditative mode follows the practice of naturalists who enter the field come into the open and relate their immediate experiences In the most primary and direct way his essays belong to our moment in history when nothing is more essential than our reattachment to earthly existence They will reawaken our love of the world the necessary eros of ecos and our wonder at and gratitude for being The Conflict Between Secular and Religious Narratives in the United States

John Sumser,2016-06-28 The Conflict Between Secular and Religious Narratives in the United States uses the theory of social construction and the philosophy of Ludwig Wittgenstein to examine the current divide between religious and secular narratives in the United States Sumser analyzes how Americans apply religious and secular reasoning to contemporary social problems and explains the resurgence of religious worldviews and the simultaneous growth of an assertive form of atheism in America This book is recommended for scholars of communication studies religious studies sociology philosophy and history

Going to See Kurt Caswell,James Perrin Warren,2024-05-01 Contributors include Rick Bass David James Duncan Gretel Ehrlich Kate Harris and Deborah A Miranda Explores Lopez s writing about the natural world in the context of current concerns about the planet s future Shares stories of Lopez s travels inspirations and friendships Barry Lopez was not only a writer but also a traveler visionary and someone with a deep love for humanity and the natural world Going to See illuminates how the stories he shared with us were like stones in a pond sending ripples throughout not just a world of readers but also a network of writers Here 30 of those writers reflect on Lopez s tremendous influence on their work and their lives From stories of intimate conversations with Lopez to insightful examinations of his writing and outdoor experiences to deeply heartfelt tributes about his generosity of spirit what emerges is a many sided portrait of Lopez as co editor James Perrin Warren writes It s also a celebration of the fellowship of writers that Lopez helped create writers who are committed to serving the natural world human and nonhuman communities and the planet we all share Earthly Words
