University Of Wits Application Forms 2015:

Rights-based Litigation, Urban Governance and Social Justice in South Africa Marius Pieterse, 2017-09-08 Rights based Litigation Urban Governance and Social Justice in South Africa considers the overlap between legal and everyday struggles for social and spatial justice in the particular context of Johannesburg South Africa Drawing from literature across disciplines of law urban geography and urban planning as well as from reported case law concerning the invocation of constitutional rights in Johannesburg and other South African cities the book critically examines whether and to what extent the invocation of legal rights before South African courts have contributed to the advancement of social justice in the city It considers the impact of the legal assertion of different constituent aspects of the so called right to the city on the many people simultaneously performing the right the governance structures responsible for enabling and facilitating its enjoyment and thirdly the physical place in which it is performed Drawing broad conclusions on the utility of rights based litigation for the achievement of social change and spatial justice this book will be of interest to students and scholars of South Africa constitutional law human rights law regulatory law sociology of rights studies of law and society urban studies urban geography governance studies and development studies

Scholarship Students in Elite South African Schools

Jennifer Wallace, Jennifer Feldman, 2022-11-16 This book provides a narrative account of the experiences of twenty former scholarship students from historically disadvantaged communities who attended elite public and private secondary schools It draws on in depth one on one semi structured interviews conducted with former scholarship recipients who were between the ages of 19 and 24 years at the time of the interviews Various themes are explored specifically focusing on elite schooling in relation to the experiences and navigational practices of the scholarship recipients and the adjustments that they felt they needed to make in order to fit into the elite school space The book analyses and discusses the reflective experiences of students who were awarded a scholarship to attend an elite secondary school It reveals that accepting the gift of a scholarship is far more complex multi layered and at times harsh and even painful for the individual recipients than is possibly realized by those involved in this practice This book contributes to academic educational debates within the sociology of education elite schools and schooling in the post apartheid South African context

Routledge Handbook of Pan-Africanism Reiland Rabaka, 2020-04-30 The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism provides an international intersectional and interdisciplinary overview of and approach to Pan Africanism making an invaluable contribution to the ongoing evolution of Pan Africanism and demonstrating its continued significance in the 21st century The handbook features expert introductions to and critical explorations of the most important historic and current subjects theories and controversies of Pan Africanism and the evolution of black internationalism Pan Africanism is explored and critically engaged from different disciplinary points of view emphasizing the multiplicity of perspectives and foregrounding an intersectional approach The contributors provide erudite discussions of black internationalism black feminism African feminism and queer

Pan Africanism alongside surveys of black nationalism black consciousness and Caribbean Pan Africanism Chapters on neo colonialism decolonization and Africanization give way to chapters on African social movements the African Union and the African Renaissance Pan African aesthetics are probed via literature and music illustrating the black internationalist impulse in myriad continental and diasporan artists work Including 36 chapters by acclaimed established and emerging scholars the handbook is organized into seven parts each centered around a comprehensive theme Intellectual origins historical evolution and radical politics of Pan Africanism Pan Africanist theories Pan Africanism in the African diaspora Pan Africanism in Africa Literary Pan Africanism Musical Pan Africanism The contemporary and continued relevance of Pan Africanism in the 21st century The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism is an indispensable source for scholars and students with research interests in continental and diasporan African history sociology politics economics and aesthetics It will also be a very valuable resource for those working in interdisciplinary fields such as African studies African American studies Caribbean studies decolonial studies postcolonial studies women and gender studies and queer studies The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity, Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Yusef Waghid, Mary Drinkwater, 2024-09-05 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores the intersections of contemporary understandings and practices of leadership within higher education around diversity inclusion and indigeneity With contributions from four continents the handbook brings together diverse perspectives to explore a range of topics including access equity cultural competence decolonisation student activism and indigenous insights Countries covered include Australia Canada Czech Republic India New Zealand Pakistan South Africa and the USA The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent s culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa

Els,2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature Practice as Research in the Arts (and Beyond) Robin Nelson,2022-05-19 This project addresses the contexts of Practice as Research and how to undertake it This second iteration updates thinking and practices but sustains a direct and clear approach on how to become a practitioner researcher New features include an extension of range beyond the arts and a case for intra disciplinarity in Practice Research as an influence in the formation of the future university A comparison is made between Artistic Research and Practice Research recognizing that research through practices with being doing knowing is central to both Acknowledging the current crisis in legitimation a broad view is taken of how things might be known by an onto epistemology for the twenty first century foregrounding the bodymind but sustaining rationality and community by way of Other other dialogic exchange Perspectives from around the world in Part II offset the more Eurocentric emphasis in Part I

Ethiopians in an Age of Migration Fassil Demissie,2018-10-11 The migration of Ethiopians across international borders is a recent phenomenon because of the limited integration of the country and society to the global economy Since it was never colonized aside from the Italian occupation of 1936 1941 Ethiopia s economy and society were not directly impacted by the ebb and flow of the global economy and thus never generated international migration Beginning in the 1970s due to factors such as famine rural poverty civil war and political repression an unprecedented number of Ethiopian migrants began to leave their country in search of better more secure lives Today this diaspora constitutes a distinctive community dispersed across the world but bound by a common feeling of collectiveness and a shared history of the homeland The contributors to this volume draw their work from a wide variety of interdisciplinary fields and provide new critical insight on Ethiopian migrants and their diaspora communities What has emerged from these scholarly works is the recognition that the Ethiopian diaspora although separated by oceans and nations by politics ethnicity class gender and age are carving out a social and material world born out of their particular circumstances both here and there This book was originally published as a special issue of African and Black Diaspora An International Journal Environmental Transformations Ernest N.

Emenyonu,2020 Investigates what literary strategies African writers adopt to convey the impact of climate transformation and environmental change This special issue examines the ways fiction and poetry engage with environmental consciousness and how African literary criticism addresses the implications of global environmental transformations Does environmentalist literature offer new possibilities for critical thinking about the future What constitutes environmentalist fiction and poetry What kind of texts themes and topics does climate writing include Does any text in which the environment features become available to environmentalist criticism In their engagement with the diverse genres themes and frameworks through which contemporary African writers address topics including urbanisation cross species communication nature and climate change contributors to this special issue help to define African environmental writing They look at the literary strategies adopted by creative writers to convey the impact of environmental transformation in narratives that are historically informed by a century of colonialism nationalist political activism urbanisation and postcolonial migration How does environmental literature intervene in these histories Can creative writers with their powerfully post human and cross species imaginations carry out the ethical work demanded by contemporary climate science From Tanure Ojaide's and Helon Habila's attention to environmental decimation in the Niger Delta through to Nnedi Okorafor's and Kofi Anyidoho's imaginative cross species encounters the special issue asks how literature mediates the specificities of climate change in an era of global capitalism and technological transformation and what the limits of creative writing and literary criticism are as tools for discussing environmental issues This volume also includes a Literary Supplement Guest Editors Cajetan Iheka Associate Professor of English Yale University and Stephanie Newell Professor of English Yale University Series Editor Ernest N Emenyonu Professor of Africana Studies at the University of Michigan Flint Reviews Editor Obi Nwakanma Fellow Department of English University of Central Florida Embers of Empire in Brexit Britain Stuart Ward, Astrid Rasch, 2019-07-25 While the British Empire is long gone it survives as a recurring flashpoint in heated debates about the present and future of Britain and the nations over which Britain once ruled Embers of Empire in Brexit Britain turns a critical eye to the widely held notion that the long shadow of the imperial past has much to answer for and asks to what extent should the residual after effects of Britain's colonial empire be taken at face value From the Rhodes must fall controversy and contested anniversaries to immigration scares and the question of what Britishness is in a post imperial world an eclectic mix of expert researchers writers and commentators consider the legacy of the British empire in the battle over Brexit As the United Kingdom haggles its way out of the European Union and casts about for an alternative future this volume shows how the memory of the empire

is still as potent a political force as ever
