Imperial Sexism

Denise M. Walsh, Associate Professor of Politics Denise M Walsh, 2025-10-03 In Imperial Sexism Denise M Walsh challenges the notion that gendered practices like the full face veil and polygyny are inherently at odds with women's rights By centering the voices of the women most affected by these practices Walsh reveals that the root problem is imperial sexism a legacy of colonial era racism and sexism By comparing three policy debates the French burka ban the legalization of polygyny in South Africa and Canada's marrying out rule Walsh demonstrates that a clash between culture and women's rights is never inevitable examines why this presumption endures and highlights the harm it causes Ultimately Imperial Sexism develops a framework to promote justice reject colonial prejudice and strengthen the indivisibility of human rights and pluralism

Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart, Rosalie Kingwill, Gavin Capps, 2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa s rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa

The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021-11-18 While sharing some characteristics with other middle income countries South Africa is a country with a unique economic history and distinctive economic features It is a regional economic powerhouse that plays a significant role not only in southern Africa and in the continent but also as a member of BRICS However there has been a lack of structural transformation and weak economic growth and South Africa faces the profound triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment Any meaningful debate about economic policies to address these challenges needs to be informed by a deep understanding of historical developments robust empirical evidence and rigorous analysis of South Africa's complex economic landscape This volume seeks to provide a wide ranging set of original detailed and state of the art analytical perspectives that contribute to scientific knowledge as well as to well informed and productive discourse on the South African economy While concentrating on the more recent economic issues facing South Africa the handbook also provides historical and political context It offers an in depth examination of strategic issues in the country's key economic sectors and brings together diverse analytical perspectives

The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John

Mashayamombe, Ruth Murambadoro, uMbuso weNkosi, 2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa's positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning

Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius, Bo Göransson, José Manoel Carvalho de Mello, 2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev

Developing and Supporting Multiculturalism and Leadership Development Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick

Blessinger, Mandla Makhanya, 2020-09-23 The modern notion of humanism centres on the core qualities in all humans agency dignity and development primarily concerned with addressing contemporary human needs concerns and problems This book has an interdisciplinary focus on the development of human capacity at all levels with the view that higher education is well suited for all Funeral Culture Casey Golomski, 2018-06-04

Contemporary forms of living and dying in Swaziland cannot be understood apart from the global HIV AIDS pandemic according to anthropologist Casey Golomski In Africa's last absolute monarchy the story of 15 years of global collaboration in treatment and intervention is also one of ordinary people facing the work of caring for the sick and dying and burying the dead Golomski's ethnography shows how AIDS posed challenging questions about the value of life culture and materiality to drive new forms and practices for funerals Many of these forms and practices newly catered funeral feasts an expanded market for life insurance and the kingdom's first crematorium are now conspicuous across the landscape and culturally disruptive in a highly traditionalist setting This powerful and original account details how these new matters of death dying and funerals have become entrenched in people's everyday lives and become part of a quest to create dignity in the wake of a devastating epidemic A Turbulent South Africa Jérôme

Tournadre, 2018-03-01 Frequently praised for its democratic transition South Africa has experienced an almost uninterrupted cycle of social protest since the late 1990s There have been increasing numbers of demonstrations against the often appalling living conditions of millions of South Africans pointing to the fact that they have yet to achieve full citizenship A Turbulent South Africa offers a new look at this historic period in the existence of the young South African democracy far removed from the idealistic portrait of the Rainbow Nation Jérôme Tournadre draws on interviews and observations to take the reader from the backstreets of the squatters camps to international militant circles and from the immediate infra political level to the worldwide anti capitalist protest movement He investigates the mechanisms and the meaning of social discontent in light of several different phenomena These include the struggle of the poor to gain recognition the persistent memory of the fight against apartheid the developments in the political world since the Mandela Years the coexistence of liberal democracy with a popular politics found in poor and working class districts and many other factors that have played a crucial part in the social and political tensions at the heart of post apartheid South Africa

A Broadband Apparatus for Underserviced Remote Communities Christoffel Kotze, 2019-09-03 This book investigates how broadband internet can be provided to remote and isolated communities through the use of satellite and other enabling technologies in the form of a self contained broadband apparatus It discusses how the proposed design can help bridge the digital divide by removing one of the main hurdles to adopting technologies infrastructure In turn the book explores how the lack of infrastructure especially with regard to connectivity and electricity can be addressed by exploiting new technological advances in a number of fields notably the newly proposed large broadband satellite constellations In closing it uses concrete examples to demonstrate the potential positive impacts of a broadband ecosystem on economics governance and society and on achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
