Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebeso, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research

Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies

Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
