Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo,2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojaelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Nation's Bounty Nontsizi Mqgwetho, 2007-06 A beautiful study of the incredible life of Nontsizi Mqgwetho For nearly a decade Nontsizi Mqgwetho contributed poetry to a Johannesburg newspaper Umteteli wa Bantu the first and only female poet to produce a substantial body of work in Xhosa Apart from what is revealed in these writings very little is known about her life She explodes on the scene with her swaggering urgent confrontational woman's poetry on 23 October 1920 sends poems to the newspaper regularly throughout the three years from 1924 to 1926 withdraws for two years until two final poems appear in December 1928 and January 1929 then disappears into the shrouding silence she first burst from Nothing more is heard from her but the poetry she left immediately claims for her the status of one of the greatest literary artists ever to write in Xhosa an anguished voice of an urban woman confronting male dominance ineffective leadership black apathy white malice and indifference economic exploitation and a tragic history of nineteenth century territorial and cultural dispossession The Nation's Bounty contains the original poems alongside English translations by Jeff Opland It was the first of a number of new titles planned for release in the African Treasury Series a premier collection of texts by South Africa's pioneers of African literature and written in indigenous languages First published by Wits University Press in the 1940s the series provided a voice for the voiceless and celebrated African culture history and heritage It continues to make a contribution by supporting current efforts to empower and develop the status of African languages in South Africa Three native accounts of the visit of the bishop of Natal ... to Umpande, king of the Zulus, with notes and a tr.
