Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C. Bester, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria

The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young, 2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis Intimations of Nostalgia Michael Hviid Jacobsen,2021-11-05

This volume investigates the relationship between nostalgia and contemporary social issues From history and political theory to marketing and media each chapter discusses the way nostalgia has been presented within a specific disciplinary context and shows how nostalgia as a topic of research has evolved over time Routledge Handbook of Proxy Wars Assaf

Moghadam,Vladimir Rauta,Michel Wyss,2023-07-28 This Handbook is the first volume to comprehensively examine the challenges intricacies and dynamics of proxy wars in their various facets The volume aims to capture the significantly growing interest in the topic at a critical juncture when wars of many guises are becoming multifaceted proxy wars Most often proxy wars have wide ranging implications for international security and are therefore a critically important subject of inquiry The Handbook seeks to understand and explain proxy wars conceptually theoretically and empirically with a focus on the numerous policy challenges and dilemmas they pose To do so it presents a multi and interdisciplinary assessment of proxy wars focused on the causes dynamics and processes underpinning the phenomenon across time and space and a multitude of actors throughout human history The Handbook is divided into six thematic sections as follows Part I

Approaches to the Study of Proxy Wars Part II Historical Perspectives on Proxy Wars Part III Actors in Proxy Wars Part IV Dynamics of Proxy Wars Part V Case Studies of Proxy Wars Part VI The Future of Proxy Wars By bringing together many leading scholars in a synthesis of expertise this Handbook provides a unique and rigorous account of research into proxy war which so far has been largely missing from the debate This book will be of much interest to students of strategic studies security studies foreign policy political violence and International Relations Seaforth World Naval Review 2013

Conrad Waters,2015-10-31 Seaforth World Naval Review 2013 Launched in 2009 this annual has rapidly established a reputation as an authoritative but affordable summary of all that has happened in the naval world in the previous twelve months It combines the standing features of regional surveys with one off major articles on noteworthy new ships and other important developments Besides the latest warship projects it also looks at wider issues of importance to navies such as aviation and electronics and calls on expertise from around the globe to give a balanced picture of what is going on and to interpret its significance Planned special features for this year include in depth studies of the navies of Italy and Ireland plus analyses of significant new warship classes the French Aquitaine class frigates Indian Shivalik class Project 17 frigates and US Bertholf class national security cutters Intended to make interesting reading as well as providing authoritative reference there is a strong visual emphasis including specially commissioned drawings and the most recently released photographs and artists impressions For anyone with an interest in contemporary naval affairs whether an enthusiast or a defence professional this annual has become required reading Hellworld: The Human Species and the Planetary Factory Phil

Neel,2025-07-24 Hellworld examines the megastructures of global capitalism asking how revolutionary subjectivity might emerge within and against capital's domesticating force Central to this inquiry is the planetary factory the global value chains connecting disparate industrial territories the rise of China the fragmentation of global trade and above all the simultaneous deagrarianisation and deindustrialisation of labor These structural shifts are linked to subjective forces exploring how social divisions shape resistance Through an analysis of uprisings in Hong Kong Thailand Sudan and beyond Hellworld considers whether this system inescapable as it seems can perhaps be destroyed The Statesman's Year-Book S. Patent Office, 1901 Queering The Terminator David Greven, 2017-06-15 The Terminator film series is an unlikely site of queer affiliation The entire premise revolves around both heterosexual intercourse and the woman's pregnancy and giving birth It is precisely the Terminator's indifference to both that signifies it as an unimaginably inhuman monstrosity Indeed the films overarching contention that humanity must be saved rooted as it is in a particular story about pregnancy and birth that exclusively focuses on the heterosexual couple and the family would appear to put it at odds with the political stances of contemporary queer theory Yet as this book argues there is considerable queer interest in the Terminator mythos The films provide a framework for interpreting shifting gender codes and the emergence of queer sexuality over the period of three decades Significantly the series emerges in the Reagan 80s which marked a decisive break with the sexual fluidity of the 70s As a franchise and on the individual basis of each film The Terminator series combines both radical and reactionary elements Each film reflects the struggles over gender and sexuality specific to its release At the same time the series foregrounds the intersection of technology and gender that has become a definitive aspect of contemporary experience A narrative organized around a conservative view of female sexuality and the family the Terminator myth is nevertheless a richly suggestive narrative for queer theory and gender studies

Revolutions and Reconstructions Van Gosse, David Waldstreicher, 2020-08-28 Revolutions and Reconstructions gathers historians of the early republic the Civil War era and African American and political history to consider not whether black people participated in the politics of the nineteenth century but how when and with what lasting effects Collectively its authors insist that historians go beyond questioning how revolutionary the American Revolution was or whether Reconstruction failed and focus instead on how political change initiated by African Americans and their allies constituted the rule in nineteenth century American politics not occasional and cataclysmic exceptions The essays in this groundbreaking collection cover the full range of political activity by black northerners after the Revolution from cultural politics to widespread voting within a political system shaped by the rising power of slaveholders Conceptualizing a new black politics contributors observe requires reorienting American politics away from black white and North South polarities and toward a new focus on migration and local or state structures Other essays focus on the middle decades of the nineteenth century and demonstrate that free black politics not merely the politics of slavery was a disruptive and consequential force in American political development From the perspective of the contributors to this volume formal black politics did not begin in 1865 or with agitation by abolitionists like Frederick Douglass in the 1840s but rather in the Revolutionary era s antislavery and citizenship activism As these essays show revolution emancipation and Reconstruction are not separate eras in U S history but rather linked and ongoing processes that began in the 1770s and continued through the nineteenth century Contributors Christopher James Bonner Kellie Carter Jackson Andrew Diemer Laura F Edwards Van Gosse Sarah L H Gronningsater M Scott Heerman Dale Kretz Pdraig Riley Samantha Seeley James M Shinn Jr David Waldstreicher
