mans journey from defendant to defense attorney a window into the inner workings of one of Miami s most notorious drug rings and a chilling portrait of the streets that Americas poverty stricken youth call home The hood is an addiction An addiction that pulls as seductively and fiercely as the drugs hustled on its streets And living in it is a daily exercise in survival Raised impoverished in the streets of Miami David Lee Windecher was only eleven years old when he was arrested for shoplifting It didn t seem like a big deal at the time deciding to take what he believed he deserved But that was the beginning for David That was the day he started thinking like a hustler He could stop waiting for the scales to tip in his favor He could stop going without He could take what life denied him And he did For the next seven years David fought bitterly against his circumstances at the side of his gang affiliate brothers It began with selling dope to help his family eat but pulled into the dark seductive life of violence drugs money and notoriety David lost himself to the game Before he turned eighteen he had built and masterminded a crime ring had been arrested thirteen times and fought daily wars against rival gangs and dirty cops But deep inside of David an idealistic boy still dreamed of becoming an attorney and fighting for justice despite race He was just waiting for someone to believe he existed

Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 1 University of Frankfurt Main England und Amerikastudien course Cultural Studies language English abstract When I think of the term American Dream it is directly connected with associations as freedom chances and success Hollywood productions like The Great Gatsby or The Pursuit of Happiness in which people have made it from rags to riches come into my mind But by taking a deeper look into that topic it becomes clear that the American Dream is much more like just that I also think of very egocentric concepts of life which are depicted in these stories and which have nothing to do with a respectful empathetic and tolerant community The questions rise what it actually is what we are dreaming of is it just about prosperity or do we really pursue happiness regardless to money And Am I interested in the development of the community What has it to do with my personal American Dream When it comes to the American Dream concepts of gender class race and ethnicity can and have to be taken into consideration especially when we link the photograph Bread Line during the Louisville Flood Kentucky from 1937 by Margaret Bourke White with that topic what will be done in this essay Before the critical executions in this essay relate to this photograph it displays the meaning of the term American Dream and its connection to inequality and poverty in general
