The Temporal Horizon Karin Linton, 1989 This dissertation studies the theme of time in Anne Tyler's fiction and centres specifically on how

Jeremy Pauling in Celestial Navigation Justine Peck in Searching for Caleb Cody Tull in Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant and Macon Leary in The Accidental Tourist respond to the losses brought about by the passage of time The introduction establishes similarities between Tyler's emphasis on change the passage of time and reactions to change and Paul Fraisse's focus on temporally organized behaviour the three interrelated perspectives of the past the present and the future The temporal horizon is used in this dissertation as a key to interpreting the temporal awareness of Tyler's characters and their behaviour in adapting to change It is often memories of crises such as unexpected death or desertion which predominate the protagonist's temporal outlook at the expense of the present and the future protagonists is to free themselves from the past and discover a greater significance in the present and the future With the exception of Jeremy Pauling they finally succeed in altering the hold of the past and as a consequence of this shift of vision a better balance between their three temporal perspectives is achieved dissertation indicates that the majority of her protagonists in the end reach a moment of buoyancy when at least temporarily in control of time they apparently trust in the possibility of altering their situations Because of this anticipation they also modify their behaviour and take steps to give their futures a new direction While it may be an open question where the passage of time may lead them the thesis indicates that in many of Anne Tyler's novels the endings seem suggestive of affirmative change

Berdine, 2020-11-25 This fascinating account highlights the extent the world's major powers will go to as they seek to insure their own interests and agendas despite the wishes of those whose countries they invade and occupy The Accidental Tourist profiles Wilfrid Scawen Blunt's involvement in the so called Arabi Revolt in 1882 It addresses Blunt's tireless efforts on behalf of the Egyptian Nationalists to mediate the differences between Britain and Egypt and prevent a British invasion of Egypt It highlights what amounted to a government cover up of the actions of certain governmental officials to precipitate the invasion by falsifying intelligence information and manipulating the press It also takes to task the scholarly tradition of maligning Blunt and questioning the accuracy of his version of the events of 1882 Blunt was branded a traitor in the House of Commons This book was written to set the record straight It is ideal reading for those interested in the field of Middle Eastern Imperial or Colonial history and will provide readers with a better understanding of the real story of imperialism that went on at the time and is still going on in the Middle East today
