Focusing on the perspectives of impact quotation parallels and transformation the author compares a range of the translated versions including two full length translations and over twenty excerpted renderings and partial adaptations since the 1820s. She discovers that excerpted translations are selected to fit the translators own narrations and are adapted to many genres such as poetry drama fairytales and textbooks. Moreover the original text translated texts and other related English works are interconnected in one large network for which intertextuality offers an ideal basis for research.
