M. Ballantyne,2022-11-13 R M

Ballantyne's Complete Novels serves as an expansive collection that encapsulates the author's adventurous spirit and vivid storytelling. Ballantyne, a master of the boys' adventure genre in the 19th century, crafts narratives filled with exploration, maritime exploits, and the interplay of man and nature. His prose is characterized by its energetic pacing, rich descriptions, and a moral undertone that reflects the Victorian ideals of courage, camaraderie, and the quest for knowledge. The collection offers a remarkable window into the period's fascination with far-off lands, showcasing themes of colonialism and the trials of youth against unfamiliar terrains, often with a tinge of exoticism that was prevalent in his time. R. M. Ballantyne was a Scottish author and a chronicler of the British Empire's far-flung adventures, shaped by his own experiences at sea and extensive travels. His upbringing in the Scottish wilderness and a formal education in various subjects, including natural history, fueled his imagination and desire to share tales that both entertained and edified young readers. Ballantyne's experiences with shipwrecks, wildlife, and indigenous cultures inspired his portrayals of heroism and moral dilemmas in the wilderness. For readers seeking exhilarating tales that evoke the timeless themes of adventure and personal growth, Complete Novels is an indispensable addition to their literary collection. This anthology not only captures the essence of youthful exuberance and adventure but also provides critical insights into the societal values and concerns of its era. Whether for casual enjoyment or academic exploration, Ballantyne's narratives remain relevant and engaging, making this collection a treasure trove for enthusiasts of classic literature.

Academia versus the World Outside lays out the givens of the knowledge industry located within the ivory tower colleges and universities. It then moves outside academia to consider this restricted world the way most people see it. The contrast between these two views of academia explains and is at the basis of the left-right animosity of our day. The knowledge industry, a creation of the post-Enlightenment modern age along with other industrial and post-industrial enterprises, is based on creating and adding to a store of knowledge as its own end. This makes academia alien to the more random and personal nature of knowledge acquisition in our everyday lives, as indeed every industry is alien to everyday life in the modern age. Yet most academics are so immersed in the peculiar project they have chosen as their life's work that they are either unaware of or unsympathetic to the fact that people outside live very different lives with very different presuppositions. Most non-academics, for their part, find academia strange and, for very good reason, Academia versus the World Outside makes this contrast and conflict clear from both directions. This book is aimed primarily at academics, most of whom so take for granted the givens of what they do that they fail to understand why the vast majority of people outside find academia alien This has led to an increasingly hostile and utterly predictable left right political conflict academia tending increasingly left and the world outside increasingly right The goal of this book is to reduce the tension between both sides if read by non academics this book may help these understand the givens of a world as strange to everyday life as any other specialized industry in the modern age The Parterre of fiction, poetry, history [&c.]. ,1835 The Seventh Sacrament Ron Cutler,2001-04-29 One by one they were being stalked The gentle women who left the church Each of them accused of defiling the Seventh Sacrament their sacred oath of marriage to Christ They died slowly horribly With a last prayer on their lips and betrayed written in their own blood both an accusation and the only clue to the murderers identity Tough young New York public defender and ex police detective Brian Asch wanted the killings stopped But the police and the church would not help him Now time was running out Brother Mark had found his next victimthe lovely ex nun Zena the woman Brian Asch now desperately loved
