In the Service of People S. N. Ejedepang-Koge, 2013-07-24 The author paints the rural geographical and sociological environment in which he was raised and highlights the careful parental care and the early death of his mother at the age of 32 years He was then 12 years old and his siblings 8 5 and 3 years old This provides the base from which traditional and western education were pursued with determination and vision as the source of progress and power thanks to the encouragement of his father Armed with a liberal and professional education Ejedepang Koge a teacher through and through his autobiography reads like a book on the education and constitutional changes in Cameroon He served and successively as a teacher Head of Service Deputy Director in both the Departments of Private and Secondary Education Director of Education of Private Education in the Ministry of National Education and in Diplomatic Service as Cultural Counsellor in the Embassy of Cameroon in Washington DC By virtue of such services he mirrors beautifully the joys and pains of a conscientious and patriotic civil servant striving to do his uncertain world few beliefs remain as firmly entrenched as the optimistic view that more schooling will lead to a better life Though this may be true in the aggregate how do we explain the circumstances when schooling fails to produce certainty or even does us harm Schooling as Uncertainty addresses this question by combining ethnography and memoir as it guides readers on a 30 year journey through fieldwork and familyhood in Tanzania and academic life in the USA Using reflexive longitudinal ethnographic research the book examines how African youth particularly young women employ schooling in an attempt to counter the uncertainties of marriage child rearing employment and HIV AIDS Adopting a narrative approach Vavrus tells the story of how her life became entangled with a community on Mount Kilimanjaro and how she and they sought greater security through schooling and to varying degrees succeeded Parliamentary Papers Queensland. Parliament.
