Should I Stay or Should I Go? Rose's Dilemma

A reading and listening PowerPoint activity

Starter

"Rose was frightened of the tunnel. She waited and waited for Jack to come out again, but he did not come. She was close to tears."

The story uses the word frightened to describe how Rose feels.

Take a minute to think of your own word to describe Rose's emotions.

We will gather our words together to make a word cloud.

Activity

We're going to play a game called 'conscience alley' to explore Rose's dilemma in more detail.

The class will make two lines facing each other. One person will play Rose and walk down the alley between the two lines.

One line will give reasons why Rose should follow Jack into the tunnel, and one line give her reasons why she shouldn't.

When Rose walks past you, it is your turn to give your reason.

At the end of the alley, Rose will choose whether or not to enter the tunnel.
