Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers

Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa Cuthbeth Tagwirei, 2025-09-26 Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa examines protest movements through the lens of Apartheid Studies the first general theory of apartheid which explores how oppression harm injustice poverty loss and inequality persist The book argues that apartheid which breaks the world of the oppressed into fragments fomenting diverse experiences of oppression among its victims frames the nature and course of protests by making them subject to its fragmentation Protest is thus redefined as good neighbourly and demoted on account of its symbiotic relationship to apartheid It is observed that the proliferation of protests does not preclude the persistence of apartheid Rather protest and apartheid are seen to be compatible By examining protest hashtags on X from South Africa and Zimbabwe the book explores and identifies the forms relations meanings trajectories and effects protests take evoke and embody as fragments subsisting in a fractured apartheid universe It demonstrates how and why life goes on amidst protest sheds light on the contradictions paradoxes and complexities that characterise protest movements and invites conversations around protest as a paradigm in the context of apartheid The book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movements protests sociology African Studies and communication and media studies

Reflections of South African

Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu, Denyse Webbstock, 2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders Achieving Nelson

Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20 South Africa's higher education sector is rooted in the country's divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go Contemporary Issues on Governance, Conflict and Security in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2023-05-25 This edited volume reflects on some of the important discussions on the trends of governance conflict and security in Africa It explores some of the emerging concerns and offers a holistic understanding of the remote and immediate causes of the conflict and how the neo colonial African states have been structured in a manner that makes violent conflict inevitable The book thereby provides an overview of Africa s security challenges and proffers some sustainable policy options for curtailing lawlessness and armed conflict on the continent Literature is exhaustive about the nexus between governance peace and security however discourse on the impact of new conflict on governance has been scant Understanding these new trends has become a necessity and precondition for sustainable development as reflected in both the African Union AU Agenda 2063 and the United Nations UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs
