Glide Through Life Beena Singh, 2022-03-14 Life is but a spectrum of instances convoluted at some points conspicuous at others like a labyrinth of mysteries waiting to present themselves to the anticipant eye We who traverse through the waves of existence must keep in mind the tender truths such as those that we are not alone nor are we helpless We ourselves hold the key to the life we desire with the determination and willingness to live a little more each day gaining insight and understanding about oneself and about situations that daunt us establishing a limit reaching it and going beyond and growing as a person while doing that Know that your actions alone are responsible for the delights and downfalls that grace your life and there is always scope for improvement Thus learning and working on oneself are tasks that should affect an individual's way of life The Awakening Colm O'Connor, 2015-08-28 The Awakening presents a profound yet simple message how to awaken from emotional imprisonment and find psychological freedom Many of us feel we are not living life to the full or living it as we should Haunted by anxiety we long for lifelines that can lift us out of the mundane into what Seamus Heaney called the marvellous If you feel like this then The Awakening may be for you Drawing on the wisdom of ancient Ireland and using the symbol of the Celtic Cross as an image for how to live Dr O'Connor shows us that we inhabit both a vertical and a horizontal life which intersect where the eternal breaks into the everyday and ordinary activities are infused with an extraordinary purpose Taking you beyond mindfulness and introducing delightful new concepts like Mind Flight this book uncovers the sparkling jewels buried in the rubble of life's indifference You can turn a tiny space into a palace a misfortune into an opportunity a disability into a blessing and fly when life expects you to fall The Awakening like the first light at Newgrange will illuminate the hidden blessings in what may seem to be your darkened life The Modern Gentleman, 2nd Edition Phineas Mollod, Jason Tesauro, 2011-05-24 Refine your cool with this quintessential sourcebook of manners and mischief Author raconteurs Phineas Mollod and Jason Tesauro offer timely advice and timeless wisdom for adventurous gents curious about JAZZ FLASKMANSHIP FRIENDS GAFFES DATING ENTERTAINING TWEETIQUETTE MODERN LIT TUXEDOS TATTOOS CAVIAR CRASH PADS BYO BBQ IOUs With new sections covering the Digital Man the Local Epicure and the Bespoke Gent this second edition provides a panoramic snapshot of the enlightened modern man witty and poignant traditional but tech savvy flirtatious yet courtly So roll up your yoga mat uncork a Barolo spin some vinyl and crack open this freshly updated edition of The Modern Gentleman your Man Cycle is peaking The “Truth” of the Bible Stanley A. Cook, 2023-04-25 Bicultural Literature and Film in French and English Peter I. Barta, Phil Powrie, 2015-12-22

This book focuses on literature and cinema in English or French by authors and directors not working in their native language Artists with hybrid identities have become a defining phenomenon of contemporary reality following the increased mobility between civilisations during the postcolonial period and the waves of emigration to the West Cinema and prose fiction remain the most popular sources of cultural consumption not least owing to the adaptability of both to the new electronic media This volume considers cultural products in English and French in which the explicitly multi focal representation of authors experiences of their native languages cultures makes itself conspicuous The essays explore work by the peripheral and those without a country while problematising what might be meant by the widely used but not always well defined term bicultural The first section looks at films by such well known filmmakers working in France as Bouchareb Kechiche Legzouli and Dridi as well as the animated feature Persepolis Here the focus is on the representation of human experience in spatial terms exploring the appropriation of territory cohabited by local people newcomers and their children haunted by the cultural memories of distant places The second part is devoted to multicultural authors whose native language was English Russian Polish Hungarian or Spanish Beckett Herzen Voeikova Triolet Conrad Hoffmann Kristof Dorfman and their creative engagement with difference A study of the emergence of multilingual writing in Montaigne and an autobiographical essay by Elleke Boehmer on growing up surrounded by English Dutch Afrikaans and Zulu frame the volume s chapters The collection relishes the freedom provided by liberation from the confines of one language and culture and the delight in creative multilingualism This book will be of significant interest to those studying the subject of biculturalism as well as the fields of comparative literature and cinema The Truth of Ecology Dana Phillips, 2003-03-27 The Truth of Ecology is a wide ranging polemical appraisal of contemporary environmental thought Focusing on the new field of ecocriticism from a thoroughly interdisciplinary perspective this book explores topics as diverse as the history of ecology in the United States the distortions of popular environmental thought the influence of Critical Theory on radical science studies and radical ecology the need for greater theoretical sophistication in ecocriticism the contradictions of contemporary American nature writing and the possibilities for a less devotional wilder approach to ecocritical and environmental thinking Taking his cues from Thoreau Stevens and Ammons from Wittgenstein Barthes and Eco from Bruno Latour and Michel Serres from the philosophers Rorty Hacking and Dennett and from the biologists Ernst Mayr and Stephen Jay Gould author Dana Phillips emphasizes an eclectic but pragmatic approach to a variety of topics His subject matter includes the doctrine of social construction the question of what it means to be interdisciplinary the disparity between scientific and literary versions of realism the difficulty of resolving the tension between facts and values or more broadly between nature and culture the American obsession with personal experience and the intellectual challenges posed by natural history Those challenges range from the near impossibility of defining ecological concepts with precision to the complications that arise when a birder tries to identify chickadees in poor light on a winter s afternoon in the Poconos The Ever-Loving Truth Voddie

Baucham,2004 Voddie Baucham has a message for Christians in today s postmodern culture it s time to take a stand for the truth The Ever Loving Truth addresses the cost of being a twenty first century Christian in a world quickly running away from the concept of absolute truth much less the knowledge and wisdom of truth But the unchanging truth of God s Word still holds preeminence in relevance and answers to contemporary life issues The Ever Loving Truth shows how committed Christians in society today just like the New Testament writers Peter and John can as followers of Christ stand humbly but boldly in the marketplace of ideas and proclaim the truth to a culture void of everlasting answers Book jacket Troubling

Women's Studies Ann Braithwaite,2004 The four essays in this collection present a multifaceted conversation about what is at stake in passing on the institutionalized project of Women s Studies at this historic moment The authors come to this conversation from a diversity of histories commitments and investments in Women s Studies Framed by the argument that Women s Studies is a project fraught with uncertainty the authors explore what it means to live within this uncertainty and how one might respond to it intellectually emotionally politically institutionally and pedagogically In exploring their own responses and taking into consideration responses from other feminist intellectuals the authors subject their practices to the same kind of academic critique to which they subject the discipline its location theories methods and pedagogies The purpose of these essays is not to enact these responses nor to fix a firm direction for the future of the discipline but rather by looking back and attending to the now inspire us to grapple with what might be possible Making-Up People: Youth, Truth and Politics Judith Bessant,2020-12-30 This book is about modern politics and young people Judith Bessant revises some long standing myths about children and young people s politics She highlights the huge gap between the many ways young people and politics are talked about and how they have long been politically active Bessant draws on a relational historical sociology to show how since the nineteenth century certain historical dynamics political interests and social imaginaries have enabled social scientists writers political leaders and policymakers to imagine and make up different kinds of young people Given these representations of childhood adolescence and youth everyone knows that young people are cognitively immature inexperienced morally under developed and lack good judgement For these reasons they cannot possibly be allowed to engage in the serious grown up business of politics Yet in just one of the many contradictions young people are criticised by many of their elders for being politically apathetic and disengaged from politics Many think recent global warming movements largely led by quite young people are a novel phenomenon Yet young people have been at the forefront of political movements of all kinds since the French Revolution Since the 1960s children and young people increasingly played a major if sometimes obscured role in civil rights anti war anti globalisation anti austerity and global warming movements This accessible book is rich in theoretical and historical insight that is sure to appeal to sociologists historians youth studies scholars and political scientists as well as to the general reader The ^APolitics of Truth in Polarized America David C.
