That Embattled Isle:

That Embattled Isle David Kuijt, David Schlanger, 2014-12-31 That Embattled Isle is a set of seven detailed historical scenarios for De Bellis Antiquitatis DBA that can be enjoyed as a set in a group or convention setting or played one at a time by enthusiasts The battles trace a variety of foreign invasions of Britain and resistance against them from earliest recorded history with the Romans through the 13th century The authors David Kuijt and David Schlanger have playtested these scenarios at large wargaming conventions over the last decade Be on the lookout for other forthcoming projects from Two Davids Productions

A Newsman Remembered Robert Smith Jordan, 2011-04-12 A Newsman Remembered is not just the story of the life of Ralph Burdette Jordan RBJ or Jock who was a remarkable newspaperman motion picture publicist war correspondent It is also a glimpse into an era of American social and political history that is now unfortunately largely forgotten if not discarded The compelling personalities with whom he engaged Aimee Semple McPherson William Randolph Hearst Louis B Mayer General Douglas MacArthur are but fading memories which this book briefly restores The first half of the 20th century began as an era of optimism that encompassed a belief that working hard along with seizing the main chance would produce social professional and financial success Ralph Jordan certainly exuded that optimism in everything that he encountered in his short life Along with his contemporaries moving into the great largely ill defined middle class was his overarching goal Within this goal family life was an important ingredient for him marriage in his day was still a partnership with clearly defined marital roles and expectations Ralph and Marys marriage reflected that domestic configuration Religious faith if not always observed to the letter also formed an important part of their family life It could not be otherwise for them and those other largely third generation descendants of Mormon pioneers and their non Mormon contemporaries with whom they associated These so called Mormon second and third generation diasporans were willing even eager to leave behind them the remoteness of what was then described as Zion to seek more promising futures elsewhere retaining as best they could their unique heritage Thus Ralph Jordans story is indeed a life and times story worth telling

Postcolonial Nations, Islands, and Tourism Helen Kapstein, 2017-07-11 Postcolonial Nations Islands and Tourism examines how real and literary islands have helped to shape the idea of the nation in a postcolonial world Through an analysis of a variety of texts ranging from literature to prison correspondence to tourist questionnaires it exposes the ways in which nationalism relies on fictions of insularity and intactness which the island and island tourism appear to provide The island space seems to offer the ideal replica of the nation and tourist practices promise the liberation of leisure the gaze and mobility However the very reliance on the constantly shifting and eroding island form exposes an anxiety about boundaries and limits on the part of the postcolonial nation In appropriating island tourism the new nation tends to recapitulate the failures and crises of the colonial nation before it Starting with the first literary tourist Robinson Crusoe Postcolonial Nations Islands and Tourism goes on to show how authors such as JM Coetzee Romesh Gunsekera and Julian Barnes have explored the outlines and implications of islandness It argues that each text expresses a profound discomfort with national form by undoing the form of the island through a variety of narrative strategies and rhetorical manoeuvres By throwing the category of the island into crisis these texts let uncertainties about the postcolonial nation and its violent practices emerge as doubt in the narratives themselves Finally in its selection of texts that shuttle between South Africa Great Britain and Sri Lanka equalizing the former colonial metropole and its outposts it offers an alternative disciplinary mapping of current postcolonial writing

Neuroarchitecture Ian Ritchie, 2020-12-21 Applying the insights of neuroscience to architecture has the potential to deliver buildings and spaces that measurably promote well being and create healthier or more effective environments for specific activities There is however a risk that neuroarchitecture will become just another buzzword a passing architectural fashion or a marketing exercise just as eco green and sustainable have become This issue of AD offers the reader an alternative to neuro sound bites and exposes them to the thinking which led to the design of the Sainsbury Wellcome Centre for Neural Circuits and Behaviour SWC a pioneering medical research facility designed to foster collaboration between researchers Multi award winning the SWC was one of the first buildings in the world designed to take into account what has been learned about how the work space affects behaviour and is a highly effective building in which to work Readers will gain a richer deeper insight into the complex mental and existential aspects of architecture design and our many senses how they interact and might interact in the future and how that knowledge can be used to design more effective buildings and built environments

Across the Reef Joseph H. Alexander, 1993 The son of a Covent Garden barber and a woman who died in Bethlehem mental hospital Joseph Mallord William Turner 1775 1851 achieved fame and fortune during his lifetime and today stands as Britain's most important and most mysterious artist Although he possessed a wide ranging imagination he was an often incoherent speaker and writer and his muddled will produced considerable discord Masterfully researched and brilliantly written Standing in the Sun is a portrait of the man With fascinating fresh material Anthony Bailey makes it possible for readers to come to know and understand this complicated artist who was both reclusive and gregarious private and vainglorious tough and vulnerable a long term bachelor and the father of two daughters Standing in the Sun brings the man and his art vividly to life in its pages The Independent ,1911 Nelsons' hand-book to the Isle of Wight William Henry Davenport Adams,1877 The Independent Leonard Bacon,Joseph Parrish Thompson,Richard Salter Storrs,Joshua Leavitt,Henry Ward Beecher,Theodore Tilton,Henry Chandler Bowen,William Hayes Ward,Hamilton Holt,Fabian Franklin,Harold de Wolf Fuller,Christian Archibald Herter,1911 The Media at War Susan Carruthers,2011-02-15 News media movies blogs and video games issue constant invitations to picture war experience the thrill of combat and revisit battles past War it s often said sells But what does it take to sell a war and to what extent can news media be viewed as disinterested reporters of truth Lively and highly readable this book explores how wars have been reported interpreted and perpetuated from the dawn of the media age to the present digital era Spanning a broad geographical and historical canvas Susan L Carruthers provides a compelling analysis of the forces that shape the production of news and images of war from state censorship to more subtle forms of military manipulation and popular pressure This fully revised second edition has been updated to cover modern day conflict in the post 9 11 epoch including the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Rich in historical detail The Media at War also provides sharp insights into contemporary experience prompting critical reflection on western society s paradoxical attitudes towards war Congressional Record United States.
