The Love of Impermanent Things Mary Rose O'Reilley, 2006 At midlife Mary Rose O'Reilley reflects on her past and her hard won sense of self She is determined now not to sacrifice or waste her self She has struggled for years along the paths set by her suburban childhood her Catholic upbringing her failed marriage and the mute duties of daughterhood Now she is trying to see the world through the eyes of the deer that stop outside her window and look in at her As a wildlife rehabilitator she feels a closer connection to the natural world as experienced by animals As an apprentice potter she sees in a Japanese tea bowl the ultimate balance of action and contemplation As a Quaker she can both sit still and sing And as a writer O'Reilley can speak clearly to readers at midlife who are expected to know it all but don't Some of the Funniest Things Happen in the Most Unlikely and Unexpected Places Glenn W. Martin, 2005-03-03 This collection of stories was written for only one purpose to make you laugh These stories are not aimed at your mind but at your funny bone They are not supposed to make you smarter or wiser but might keep you from taking yourself and life too seriously When enjoying these stories you may venture into restaurants or churches attend weddings or funerals and spend some time in the Army And you may meet people who did not intend to be funny but did funny things These stories should put a smile on your face and a chuckle in your voice And if you laugh out loud that would be okay too Laughter is not only good for your health but it also does wonders for your spirit and your soul BLESSINGS, TEARS and a CHUCKLE or TWO Willi Fischer Jed, 2010-12-15

Noun inflection and derivation are detailed, as is verb inflection in the context of tense, aspect, and modality. Noun phrase character encompasses remnant noun classes, nominal modification types, and pronoun forms, followed by conjunction. Verb phrase features include complex predicates, both verbs in series, and verb plus postverbal particle, functionally distinct copulas, double objects, and sentence complement types constrained by matrix verb. Also analyzed are preverbal and postverbal adverbials relative to information question types. Multi-clause constructions are profiled as to coding varieties across dependent clauses as well as precedence relations.
