American Foreign Relations Reconsidered Gordon Martel, 2002-11 Brings together 12 scholars of US foreign relations Each contributor provides a concise summary of an important theme in US affairs since the Spanish American War US policy process economic interests relations with the Third World and the nuclear arms race have been highlighted Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations Michael J. Hogan, Thomas G. Paterson, 2004-01-19 Originally published in 1991 Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations has become an indispensable volume not only for teachers and students in international history and political science but also for general readers seeking an introduction to American diplomatic history This collection of essays highlights a variety of newer innovative and stimulating conceptual approaches and analytical methods used to study the history of American foreign relations including bureaucratic dependency and world systems theories corporatist and national security models psychology culture and ideology Along with substantially revised essays from the first edition this volume presents entirely new material on postcolonial theory borderlands history modernization theory gender race memory cultural transfer and critical theory The book seeks to define the study of American international history stimulate research in fresh directions and encourage cross disciplinary thinking especially between diplomatic history and other fields of American history in an increasingly transnational globalizing world Case Studies on Modern European Economy Tibor Iván Berend, 2013 The last two centuries have been the scene of dramatic change throughout Europe And one of the main causes of these tremendous and spectacular changes was the economy These transformations were achieved by people scientists and political thinkers inventors and entrepreneurs educators skilled and educated workers Who not only invented machines and computers but were able to renew economic and political systems This volume therefore presents a new approach to the period by looking at case studies to understand how these changes came about and the impact they had on modern Europe Ivan Berend presents the spectacular history of modern European economy as a chain of small events actions and the ideas of individuals as the influence of institutions and bold entrepreneurs The essays are grouped into six chapters and discuss the power of entrepreneurship the power of institutions economic regimes and the permanent renewal of capitalism the power of ideas and inventions pioneering companies from the rise of industrial cities to post industrial suburbanization bubbles great depressions and economic cycles All of the single episodes and personal stories offer a cross section of the complex and interrelated history of modern Europe Case Studies on Modern European Economy will be essential reading for students of economic and modern European history World History through Case Studies David Eaton, 2025-01-23 This innovative textbook demystifies the subject of world history through a diverse range of case studies Each chapter looks at an event person or place commonly included in comprehensive textbooks from prehistory to the present and from across the globe from the Kennewick Man to gladiators and modern day soccer and globalization and digs deeper examining why historians disagree on the subject and why their debates remain relevant today

By taking the approach of unwrapping the textbook David Eaton reveals how historians think making it clear that the past is not nearly as tidy as most textbooks suggest Provocative questions like whether ancient Greece was shaped by contact with Egypt provide an entry point into how history professors may sharply disagree on even basic narratives and how historical interpretations can be influenced by contemporary concerns By illuminating these historiographical debates and linking them to key skills required by historians World History through Case Studies shows how the study of history is relevant to a new generation of students and teachers

Environments of Empire Ulrike Kirchberger, Brett M. Bennett, 2020-02-14 The age of European high imperialism was characterized by the movement of plants and animals on a historically unprecedented scale The human migrants who colonized territories around the world brought a variety of other species with them from the crops and livestock they hoped to propagate to the parasites invasive plants and pests they carried unawares producing a host of unintended consequences that reshaped landscapes around the world While the majority of histories about the dynamics of these transfers have concentrated on the British Empire these nine case studies focused on the Ottoman French Dutch German and British empires seek to advance a historical analysis that is comparative transnational and interdisciplinary to understand the causes consequences and networks of biological exchange and ecological change resulting from imperialism Contributors Brett M Bennett Semih Celik Nicole Chalmer Jodi Frawley Ulrike Kirchberger Carey McCormack Idir Ouahes Florian Wagner Samuel Eleazar Wendt Alexander van Wickeren Stephanie Zehnle

The British Military Revolution of the 19th Century Daniel R. LeClair, 2019-11-11 From the Crimean War through the Second Boer War the British Empire sought to solve the Great Gun Question to harness improvements to ordnance small arms explosives and mechanization made possible by the Industrial Revolution The British public played a surprising but overlooked role offering myriad suggestions for improvements to the civilian led War Office Meanwhile politicians and army leaders argued over control of the country's ground forces in a decades long struggle that did not end until reforms of 1904 put the military under the Secretary of State for War Following the debate in the press voters put pressure on both Parliament and the War Office to modernize ordnance and military administration The Great Gun Question was as much about weaponry as about who ultimately controlled military power Drawing on ordnance committee records and contemporary news reports this book fills a gap in the history of British military technology and army modernization prior to World War I Comprehensive Dissertation Index, 1861-1972: History Xerox University Microfilms,1973 Notes on India Robert Bohm,1982 Bohm challenges the Western view of India as a country of spiritual fatalistic people incapable of launching a full scale revolution that would put them in charge of their own lives
