The Babylonian Legends of Creation (Illustrated) E. A. Budge, 2016-12-07. This edition of The Babylonian Legends of Creation possesses the author's original and crucial charts, artifact and tablet photographs, illustrations, and cuneiform. Vital for understanding the roots of Babylonian society, this text summarizes each of the tablets detailing Babylonian beliefs regarding the world's creation. E. A. Wallis Budge undertook an immense investigation of the creation myths first uncovered by archaeological excavations during the 19th century. These myths were etched upon seven tablets of stone, all of which were covered in cuneiform script, one of the earliest forms of writing. As one of the oldest religious writings in existence, the Babylonian creation myths, also known as En ma Elis, reveal a society steeped in religious belief and ritualistic culture. The two Gods, Marduk and Tiamat, battle with one another for supremacy; amid the fighting, the world is created. Marduk, as the ultimate victor, becomes King of the Gods. Within Budge's outstanding treatise are sequential explanations of the individual tablets. These are followed with a line-by-line translation to English of each. This narrative is supplemented by photographs of Babylonian artifacts, plus the tablets themselves. Also appended at the conclusion of this edition are notes which further explain the characters and deities referred to in the Babylonian cuneiform script. A landmark text in archaeology by one of the British Museum's best-regarded scholars of the ancient world, The Babylonian Legends of Creation remains a valuable and worthy addition to any enthusiast's library.

The Babylonian Legends of the Creation and Story of the Deluge as Told by Assyrian Tablets from Nineveh Sir Ernest Alfred Thompson Wallis Budge, In 1845-47 and again in 1849-51. Mr. later Sir A. H. Layard carried out a series of excavations among the ruins of the ancient city of Nineveh, that great city wherein are more than sixteen thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left, and also much cattle. Jonah iv II. Its ruins lie on the left or east bank of the Tigris, exactly opposite the town of Al Mawsil or Mosul, which was founded by the Sassanians and marks the site of Western Nineveh. At first Layard thought that these ruins were not those of Nineveh, which he placed at Nimrud about 20 miles downstream, but of one of the other cities that were builded by Asshur. See Gen x 11-12. Thanks, however, to Christian, Roman, and Muhammadan tradition, there is no room for doubt about it, and the site of Nineveh has always been known. The fortress which the Arabs built there in the seventh century was known as Kalat Nawa'i, i.e. Nineveh Castle, for many centuries, and all the Arab geographers agree in saying that the mounds opposite Mosul contain the ruins of the palaces and walls of Nineveh And few of them fail to mention that close by them is Tall Nabi Y nis i e the Hill from which the Prophet Jonah preached repentance to the inhabitants of Nineveh that exceeding great city of three days journey Jonah iii 3 Local tradition also declares that the prophet was buried in the Hill and his supposed tomb is shown there to this day Babylonian Legends of the Creation E a Wallis Budge,2020-08-24 This interesting book discsses ancient Babylonian myths and legends as found in some ancient tablets and interpreted by British archaeologists It records the findings and the excavation and it also includes explanation of the so called Seven Tablets of Creation It is an enthralling read for readers keen on antiquity ancient mythology and archaeology
