Schooley, Peter Sellers, 2003 In this collection of contemporary noir stories from the editors of the acclaimed noir anthology Iced come a scintillating new book about the many ways love can go wrong Houston Noir (Akashic Noir) Gwendolyn Zepeda, 2019-05-07 The fourth largest city in the US is long overdue to enter the Noir Series arena and does so blazingly There's precious little comfort to be found in any of these Houston neighborhoods most of which are set light years away from the city's notoriously cushy new money culture Houston comes across as a haven of multiculturalism though as in all the 90 plus volumes of Akashic's 15 year old series the vision of the city that emerges isn't likely to jump start tourism for any but the most ghoulishly inclined Kirkus Reviews Brooklyn Noir came first in 2004 and now 15 years later Houston Noir 14 stories of intrigue betrayal and death set from Tanglewood to Third Ward penned by current or former Houston authors goes on sale Houston Chronicle Akashic Books continues its award winning series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir Each book comprises all new stories each one set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the respective city Brand new stories by Tom Abrahams Robert Boswell Sarah Cortez Anton DiSclafani Stephanie Jaye Evans Wanjiku Wa Ngugi Adrienne Perry Pia Pico Reyes Ramirez Icess Fernandez Rojas Sehba Sarwar Leslie Contreras Schwartz Larry Watts and Deborah D E E P Mouton From the introduction by Gwendolyn Zepeda In a 2004 essay Hunter S Thompson described Houston as a cruel crazy town on a filthy river in East Texas with no zoning laws and a culture of sex money and violence It's a shabby sprawling metropolis ruled by brazen women crooked cops and super rich pansexual cowboys who live by the code of the West which can mean just about anything you need it to mean in a pinch For what it's worth that quote is now posted on a banner somewhere downtown and regularly gleefully repeated by our local feature writers Houston is a port city on top of a swamp and yes it has no zoning laws And that means it's culturally diverse internally incongruous and ever changing At any intersection here I might look out my car window and see a horse idly munching St Augustine grass And within spitting distance of that horse I might see a spa that's an obvious brothel a house turned drug den or a swiftly rising bayou that might overtake a car if the rain doesn't let up Overall this collection represents the very worst our city has to offer for residents and visitors alike But it also presents some of our best voices veteran and emerging to any reader lucky enough to pick up this book

Malice Domestic 6 Anne Perry, The White Devil Domenic Stansberry, 2016-10 Noir master Domenic Stansberry returns with this sultry decadent murder mystery THE WHITE DEVIL tells the story of an aspiring American actress who together with her too charming brother is implicated in a series of crimes dating back to their childhood days in Texas The novel begins in Rome among the American ex patriot community and from there follows the siblings latest obsessions an aging Italian actress and her charismatic husband Stansberry's protagonist Vicki Wilson narrates the story in a voice alternately intimate and distant a cipher of unwholesome impulse and erotic intrigue The result is an elegant tour de force a psychological noir exploring the murky depths where the differences between familial and erotic love between criminal and victim merge in deadly unexpected ways Stansberry nails the sultry decadent and erotically charged tone with one perfectly placed hammer stroke after another Booklist Perhaps the most surprising feature of this tour de force is its pervasive links to both Jacobean tragedy and contemporary Mediterranean noir Who knew Kirkus Edgar winner Stansberry takes the reader on a wild ride in this exceptional noir compelling reading

Publisher s Weekly Starred Review American Women of Mystery: Three Classic Mystery Novels by American Women Authors of the 1930's Anne Austin,Dorothy Bennett,H. Ashbrook,2016-09-05 Three complete novels in one One Drop of Blood by Anne Austin Murder Unleashed by Dorothy Bennett The Murder of Cecily Thane by H Ashbrook While the best known writers of American detective fiction in the 1930 s were men such as Dashiell Hammett Rex Stout and S S Van Dine there were also many American women writing in the genre during that period This collection includes mystery novels by three of them Although there are differences in style and treatment between them they all are written with a distinctly American voice that sets them apart from their British counterparts They are edgier and darker than the cozy mysteries that were so representative of British mysteries of the time While not particularly well known today each of these three authors was a talented writer in her own right making American Women of Mystery a compelling and fascinating read Night and Fear Cornell Woolrich,2005 A collection of previously uncollected mystery and suspense fiction by the father of noir and author of Night Has Thousand Eyes presents twenty masterful tales many of them originally written for the pulp magazines and never before published in book form Reprint
