It includes expanded coverage of symbols, healing, wizardry, and the intersections of religion with other social institutions. New case study material with examples drawn from around the globe, especially from Indigenous communities, is included. Marginalia in each chapter introducing provocative small case examples related to the chapter; many of these can be used as prompts for further research. Small in-class case studies or examples for hands-on learning. A new chapter on religion and healing, especially useful for Anthropology programs without representation of four fields, as it provides a wider and more interdisciplinary application of the discipline. A consistent review of foundations from chapter to chapter, linking material and enabling students to connect what they are learning throughout the course and further resources via a comprehensive companion website including interactive activities, critical case studies, updated study questions, bibliographical suggestions, including video and color images.
