Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don't ask for change and most listeners don't experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resource material rowman.com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually

CONVEYING IDEAS A Text Book on Improving Public Speech Dr Ananta Geetey Uppal, Catalogue of the Keiogijuku Library 1906

Speaking the Truth in Love Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15 speaking the truth in love The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11 if anyone speaks he should do it as one speaking the very words of God The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God especially the virtue of love is an awesome privilege and opportunity Sound content spoken or written eloquently with charisma will enable words to have a maximum impact The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication Beginning with a philosophy of language meaning and interaction argument is built against secular deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language Alongside philosophy we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective Following this a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre-testament classics to today Based upon these ideas we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication Finally the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication
