Plan of Instruction:

1. Introduction: Show United Streaming video segment: [NOTE: This link might take you to the segment "All Men are Created Equal," if so, scroll down the segments in the side bar to find "The Great Awakening"].

Great Awakening (from Africans in America: Revolution: 1750-1805):
<http://player.discoveryeducation.com/index.cfm?productId=E72CE3C5-B429-4867-B099-FCE2BC055C99>

Elicit from students: According to the video, what was the Great Awakening? What was appealing about the religious messages that were spreading in the early 1700s?

2. Mini-lecture: Powerpoint lecture. Introduce central historical question: Why was George Whitefield so popular?
3. Cognitive modeling: Hand out Document A and put transparency on overhead. Begin modeling SOURCING AND CONTEXTUALIZATION.

The first thing we want to do is source the document to see what I can find about the author's perspective. I see that this was written in 1793, over 50 years after the Great Awakening, so I'm not sure how reliable this is. Maybe Franklin's memory of hearing Whitefield differs from what actually happened. I know that memory is often inaccurate. It's hard to predict what Franklin will say about Whitefield: on the one hand, they're friends, so he probably won't say bad things. On the other hand, I know that Ben Franklin really believed in Enlightenment ideas and reason, so I don't think he would have bought into the whole revival aspect of the Great Awakening. I don't really know what to predict at this point.

Teaching Literature in Translation Brian James Baer, Michelle Woods, 2022-07-29 The teaching of texts in translation has become an increasingly common practice but so too has the teaching of texts from languages and cultures with which the instructor may have little or no familiarity The authors in this volume present a variety of pedagogical approaches to promote translation literacy and to address the distinct phenomenology of translated texts The approaches set forward in this volume address the nature of the translator's task and how texts travel across linguistic and cultural boundaries in translation including how they are packaged for new audiences with the aim of fostering critical reading practices that focus on translations as translations The organizing principle of the book is the specific pedagogical contexts in which translated texts are being used such as courses on a single work survey courses on a single national literature or a single author and courses on world literature Examples are provided from the widest possible variety of world languages and literary traditions as well as modes of writing prose poetry drama film and religious and historical texts with the aim that many of the pedagogical approaches and strategies can be easily adapted for use with other works and traditions An introductory section by the editors Brian James Baer and Michelle Woods sets the theoretical stage for the volume Written and edited by authorities in the field of literature and translation this book is an essential manual for all instructors and lecturers in world and comparative literature and literary translation Knoxy

Little Tales Toshmina Das,2021-04-07 Knoxy little tales are honest and heart endearing stories on love loyalty and friendship These stories are of people like you and me Some of them are inspired by real events of my own life while the rest are about people who crossed my path These stories show the strength of the relationships we have They might make you laugh or cry They might also make you sit back for a moment and relate them with your very own life These are stories of our friends our families our pets and even the people we are faintly acquainted with I genuinely feel that every relationship leaves a mark And through my collection of short stories I have tried my best to portray them all So come and hop on this beautiful journey of life with me The Church School Journal ,1889 Environment Poetry Andrew Frolich,2012-10-19
