Liberation Struggle in South Africa Gregory F. Houston,2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume follows the interactions between the United Democratic Front UDF and the African National Congress ANC and Pan Africanist Congress PAC which had adopted more revolutionary strategies after their banning in 1960 over the period 1983-87 Only a few studies of the UDF have aimed to link revolutionary developments in 1980s South Africa with theories of revolutionary strategy and tactics This volume focuses on the relation between revolutionary theory praxis and the formation aims policies and practices of the UDF Houston argues that the formulation of the UDF met certain strategic and tactical requirements of Lenin and Gramsci's theories of revolutionary strategy repositioning the UDF as becoming a Leninist vanguard party with its affiliate membership operating largely underground The volume features 6 detailed maps of the Cape Town area the Republic of South Africa in the 1980s the Johannesburg area the Durban area the Pretoria area and the Northern Transvaal

Modelling and numerical simulations with differential equations in mathematical biology, medicine and the environment Appanah Rao Appadu, Ramoshweu Solomon Lebelo, Hagos Hailu Gidey, Bilge Inan, 2023-04-05 Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the AIDS epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co-evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life-prolonging treatment programmes Black Consciousness Hlumelo Biko, 2021-09-09 If Steve Biko were alive today we would have a country that gladly embraces African culture as the dominant driving force for how society is organised In 1968 two young medical students Steve Biko and Mamphela Ramphele fell in love while dreaming of a life free from oppression and racial discrimination Their love story is also the story of the founding of the Black Consciousness Movement BCM by a group of 15 principled and ambitious students at the University of Natal in Durban in the early 1970s In this deeply personal book Hlumelo Biko who was born of Steve and Mamphela's union movingly recounts his parents' love story and how the BCM's message of black self-love and self-reliance helped to change the course of South African history Based on interviews with some of the BCM's founding members Black Consciousness describes the early years of the movement in vivid detail and sets out its guiding principles around a positive black identity black theology and the practice of Ubuntu through community-based programmes In spiritual conversation with his father Hlumelo re-examines what it takes to live a Black Consciousness life in today's South Africa He also explains why he believes his father who was brutally murdered by the apartheid police in 1977 would have supported true radical economic transformation if he were alive today Global Social Work Bala

Nikku,2020-07-15 This edited book Global Social Work Cutting Edge Issues and Critical Reflections presents global social work expertise practical tools and an iterative and reflective process for developing a global social work pedagogy that advances deep disciplinary learning The authors offer the specifics of a justice based decolonizing global social work education and practice This book will be an asset to faculty communities interested in specializing in global social work The book offers hope that the faculty students and practitioners of social work develop an intercultural international cross border critical approach that further prepares them to meet the global standards of social work education and research and at the same time skillfully act advocate and transform global communities and their role in a globalized world Decolonising Higher Education in the Era of Globalisation and Internationalisation Kehdinga George Fomunyam,2019-07-01 Conceived within a context of transdisciplinarity and pluriversalism and in rigorous response to the Eurocentric globalising and nationalising structures of power that undergird and inhabit contemporary praxis in higher education especially in African higher education this collection of essays brings to the on going discourse on decolonisation fresh rich probing and multilayered perspectives that should accelerate the process of decolonisation not only in higher education in Africa but also in the global imaginary A remarkable courageous and potentially revolutionary achievement this book deserves a special place on curricula throughout the world of higher education Beyond Our Wildest Dreams Ineke van Kessel,2000 The 1980s in South Africa were marked by protest violent confrontation and international sanctions Internally the country saw a bewildering growth of grassroots organizations including trade unions civic associations in the black townships student and other youth organizations church based groups and women s movements many of which operated under the umbrella of the United Democratic Front UDF Beyond Our Wildest Dreams explores the often conflicted relationship between the UDF s large scale resistance to apartheid and its everyday struggles at the local level In hindsight the UDF can be seen as a transitional front preparing the ground for leaders of the liberation movement to return from exile or prison and take over power But the founding fathers of the UDF initially had far more modest ambitions Interviews with Cachalia and other leading personalities in the UDF examine the organization s workings at the national level while stories of ordinary people collected by the author illuminate the grassroots activism so important to the UDF s success Even in South Africa writes Ineke van Kessel who covered the anti apartheid movement as a journalist resistance was not the obvious option for ordinary citizens Van Kessel shows how these people were mobilized into forming a radical social movement that developed a highly flexible and innovative form of resistance that ultimately ended apartheid From publisher s description Survey of Race Relations in South Africa, 1983 South African Institute of Race Relations,1984 Global Pandemics and Media Ethics Tendai Chari,Martin N. Ndlela,2022-11-18 This topical volume illuminates ethical issues brought to the fore by the COVID 19 pandemic Drawing on a broad range of case studies from different regions it provides insights into the multiple and complex ways in which the pandemic has shaped media ethics The chapters employ a wide range of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches to dissect enduring and emerging ethical questions during the pandemic providing lucid accounts of axiological dimensions in pandemic discourses ethics of emotional mood ethical challenges and dilemmas in news reporting propaganda misinformation disinformation and Othering While the case studies in this book are unique the authors have extrapolated common strands from their analysis of ethical issues applicable to any other country or region during the pandemic contributing unique perspectives on how media ethics are circumscribed by global health pandemics The book will appeal to researchers academics and practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism communication media sociology and public health as well as general readers and policymakers who are keen to learn more about how global health crises illuminate critical ethical issues confronting the media
