The Texas Lowcountry John R. Lundberg,2024-06-18 In The Texas Lowcountry Slavery and Freedom on the Gulf Coast 1822 1895 author John R Lundberg examines slavery and Reconstruction in a region of Texas he terms the lowcountry an area encompassing the lower reaches of the Brazos and Colorado Rivers and their tributaries as they wend their way toward the Gulf of Mexico through what is today Brazoria Fort Bend Matagorda and Wharton Counties In the two decades before the Civil War European immigrants particularly Germans poured into Texas sometimes bringing with them cultural ideals that complicated the story of slavery throughout large swaths of the state By contrast 95 percent of the white population of the lowcountry came from other parts of the United States predominantly the slaveholding states of the American South By 1861 more than 70 percent of this regional population were enslaved people the heaviest such concentration west of the Mississippi These demographics established the Texas Lowcountry as a distinct region in terms of its population and social structure Part one of The Texas Lowcountry explores the development of the region as a borderland an area of competing cultures and peoples between 1822 and 1840 The second part is arranged topically and chronicles the history of the enslavers and the enslaved in the lowcountry between 1840 and 1865 The final section focuses on the experiences of freed people in the region during the Reconstruction era which ended in the lowcountry in 1895 In closely examining this unique pocket of Texas Lundberg provides a new and much needed region specific study of the culture of enslavement and the African American experience Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1977 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists

,1955-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Asia's Aging Security Andrew L. Oros,2025-09-09 Major demographic transitions are underway in Asia and the Pacific The populations of China Japan Taiwan South Korea and Russia are aging and shrinking

while India the Philippines Vietnam and Australia among others continue to grow How will these striking changes affect regional security dynamics and the United States led alliance structure in the Indo Pacific Andrew L Oros offers an expert analysis of how rapid aging and population shifts are transforming the military strategies and capabilities of regional powers in Asia Examining sixteen states he provides a comparative view of the developing landscape and explores ways to address the consequences Oros demonstrates that contrary to what many have claimed states with shrinking populations will continue to be formidable military powers He develops a novel theoretical and empirical argument for why rapid aging does not necessarily dampen security competition Nonetheless demographic shifts in the coming decades will fundamentally alter the security challenges facing the United States and its allies Oros considers how technological change and health care advances are mitigating the drawbacks of aging populations as well as how factors such as autonomous defense systems and artificial intelligence present new challenges Rigorous and timely Asia s Aging Security makes a forceful case that adjustment to demographic change is a necessity for twenty first century foreign policy
