At the meeting, guests heard the company's business plan, which outlined the company's goals for the year, and the company's financial performance. The company also presented its marketing strategy, which included a plan to increase sales in the new market. The meeting was a success, and the company was able to secure the necessary funding to launch its new product line.

15. Discuss whether you believe Costa Rica is more similar to Switzerland or New Zealand in terms of geography, history, people, government, and tourism. Using your knowledge about other Spanish-speaking countries, explain how Costa Rica will be placed prior to the other two (in English). My Costa Rica writing team all considers us almost similar others, they make money, history, some other with natural as well. I think that Switzerland might get a better name due to our forests and mountains. I think that British Columbia would attract more people here. I love this in British Columbia country. I would like to visit the other two but I think it's interesting that they are similar to Switzerland. I would not make a choice for them. I think that's all.
