especially meaningful for socially disadvantaged men Gandal furthermore contextualizes the sole World War I novel by an African American veteran Victor Daly revealing a complex experience of both army discrimination and empowerment among the French Finally Gandal explores three women writers Katherine Anne Porter Willa Cather and Ellen La Motte who saw the war create frontline opportunities for women while allowing them to be arbiters of masculinity at home Ultimately War Isn't the Only Hell shows how American World War I literature registered the profound ways in which new military practices and a foreign war unsettled traditional American hierarchies of class ethnicity gender and even race The Summer I Wasn't
