The Haunted Life

Erik Mortenson, Tomasz Sawczuk

The Haunted Life:

The Haunted Life Jack Kerouac, 2014-03-11 1944 was a troubled and momentous year for Jack Kerouac. In March his close friend and literary confidant Sebastian Sampas lost his life on the Anzio beachhead while serving as a US Army medic. That spring still reeling with grief over Sebastian, Kerouac solidified his friendships with Lucien Carr, William Burroughs, and Allen Ginsberg, offsetting the loss of Sampas by immersing himself in New York's blossoming mid-century bohemia. That August, however, Carr stabbed his longtime acquaintance and mentor David Kammerer to death in Riverside Park, claiming afterwards that he had been defending his manhood against Kammerer's persistent and unwanted advances. Kerouac was originally charged in Kammerer's killing as an accessory after the fact as a result of his aiding Carr in disposing of the murder weapon and Kammerer's eyeglasses. Consequently, Kerouac was jailed in August 1944 and married his first wife, Edie Parker, on the twenty-second of that month in order to secure the money he needed for his bail bond. Eventually, the authorities accepted Carr's account of the killing, trying him instead for manslaughter and thus nullifying the charges against Kerouac. At some point later in the year, under circumstances that remain rather mysterious, the aspiring writer lost a novella-length manuscript titled The Haunted Life, a coming-of-age story set in Kerouac's hometown of Lowell, Massachusetts. Kerouac set his fictional treatment of Peter Martin against the backdrop of the everyday comings and goings of the shopping district, the banter and braggadocio that occurs within the smoky atmospherics of the corner bar, the drowsy sound of a baseball game over the radio. Peter is heading into his sophomore year at Boston College and, while home for the summer in Galloway, he struggles with the pressing issues of his day: the economic crisis of the previous decade and what appears to be the impending entrance of the United States into the Second World War. The other principal characters, Garabed Tourian and Dick Sheffield, are based respectively on Sebastian Sampas and fellow Lowellian Billy Chandler, both of whom had already died in combat by the time of Kerouac's drafting of The Haunted Life, providing some of the impetus for its title. Garabed is a leftist idealist and poet with a pronounced tinge of the Byronic; Dick is a romantic adventurer whose wanderlust has him poised to leave Galloway for the wider world, with or without Peter. The Haunted Life also contains a compelling and controversial portrayal of Jack's father, Leo Kerouac, recast as Joe Martin. Opposite of Garabed's progressive New Deal perspective, Joe is a right-wing and bigoted populist and an ardent admirer of radio personality Father Charles Coughlin. The conflicts of the novella are primarily intellectual, then, as Peter finds himself suspended between the differing views of history, politics, and the world embodied by the other three characters and struggles to define what he believes to be intellectually true and worthy of his life and talents. The Haunted Life, skillfully edited by University of Massachusetts at Lowell Assistant Professor of English Todd F. Tietchen, is rounded out by sketches, notes, and reflections Kerouac kept during the novella's composition, as well as a revealing selection of correspondence with his father, Leo Kerouac.

The Lord Is Risen He Is Risen Indeed! He Really Is Richard Sheffield, 1998 Richard Sheffield's preaching is stimulating and unique Whenever I am burdened or under pressure his pithy insights into the Gospel of our Lord refresh my spirit They sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems He is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express He handles life's misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience This comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen Under his gentle manner there is the fire of Peter Thomas and St Paul all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction Bryant Kirkland Minister Emeritus Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church New York New York At first glance the Easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for Lent But Richard Sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for Easter Day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a Christian The Lord Is Risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have How we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in Lent as well as Easter with hope Hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter Rev Sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about God into the bad news about us and it shows He writes Belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith Or figuring out the best way to keep God happy long enough to get into heaven Belief is living life now certain of the love of God in Jesus Christ for you and me Living life unafraid even of death itself Richard L Sheffield is senior pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church Lima Ohio He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and an M B A degree from the University of Chicago He is a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary A History of the Modern British Ghost
