The Global Gospel Achieving Missional Impact In Our Multicultural World:

The Global Gospel Werner Mischke, 2014-11-15 The singular issue which this book addresses may be defined by posing this question How can the honor shame dynamics common to the Bible and many Majority World societies be used to contextualize the Christian faith in order to make it more widely understood and accepted Themelios, Volume 41, Issue 3 D. A. Carson, 2017-01-05 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Managing Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary The Fourfold Gospel, Volume 3 John DelHousaye, 2023-07-25 In the spirit of Ludolph of Saxony c 1295 1378 and Ignatius of Loyola 1491 1556 The Fourfold Gospel invites the reader into the mystery of God s redemption in Jesus Christ All the parallel passages in the Gospels are glossed together along with the unique material using a medieval interpretive approach called the Quadriga or the acronym PaRDeS in Hebrew Meditating on the literal canonical moral and theological senses of Scripture offers a scaffolding for the spiritual formation of the reader This volume focuses on the illuminative stage of discipleship the goal of the parables along with Jesus s conflict with enemies and our mission Crossing Cultures with the Gospel Darrell L. Whiteman, 2024-02-27 Christianity Today 2025 Book Award Finalist Missions Global Church Outreach 2025 Resource of the Year Missions and Cross Cultural Southwestern Journal of Theology 2023 Book Award Honorable Mention Evangelism Missions Global Church Drawing on forty years of teaching and mission experience leading missiological anthropologist Darrell Whiteman brings a wealth of insight to bear on cross cultural ministry After explaining the nature and function of culture and the importance of understanding culture for ministry Whiteman addresses the most common challenges of ministering across cultures He then provides practical solutions based on lived experience helping readers develop healthy patterns so they can communicate the gospel effectively Issues addressed include negotiating differences in worldview the problem of nonverbal communication understanding cultural forms and their meanings and the challenge of overcoming culture shock Professors students and anyone ministering cross culturally will benefit from this informed yet accessible guide Foreword by Miriam Adeney

Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider's role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development Biblical Storytelling Design Jim Roché, 2020-04-09 The apostle Paul directed Timothy to teach faithful men who would follow his model of teaching others also 2 Tim 2:2 To ask a new believer to tell his or her unbelieving network of friends about Jesus takes boldness confidence and critically a teaching program that is simple and easily reproducible This book teaches how to craft and model telling biblical stories in the believer's own words and style that can be easily repeated by following spiritual generations But crafting effective stories to reproduce takes wisdom Biblical Storytelling Design identifies seven negative influences that can either weaken or even terminate the storytelling process of spiritual reproduction But these influences can be counteracted by applying storytelling strategies when crafting stories This book teaches not only what to do but why it works through understanding insights from educational psychology sociology and anthropology that are illustrated in Scripture itself Old Testament in Theology and Teaching Teresa Chai, 2018-03-22 This book is a series of essays in Old Testament theology and pedagogy Each article is written by scholars with academic competence and long experience in their respective disciplines Written with a high view of the inerrancy of Scripture in mind each author seeks to bring biblical truth to light In most cases the authors write from within the Pentecostal Charismatic tradition and seek to bless the wider Body of Christ Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information Honor, Shame, and the Gospel Christopher Flanders, Werner

Mischke, 2020-10-27 An Honorific Gospel Biblically Faithful Culturally Relevant Christians engaged in communicating the gospel navigate a challenging tension faithfulness to God's ancient revealed Word and relevance to the local current social context What if there was a lens or paradigm offering both Understanding the Bible particularly the gospel through the ancient cultural language of honor shame offers believers this double blessing In Honor Shame and the Gospel over a dozen practitioners and scholars from diverse contexts and fields add to the ongoing conversation around the theological and missiological implications of an honorific gospel Eight illuminating case studies explore ways to make disciples in a diversity of social contexts for example East Asian rural Middle Eastern refugee African tribal and Western secular urban Honor Shame and the Gospel provides valuable resources to impact the ministry efforts of the church locally and globally Linked with its ancient honor shame cultural roots the gospel paradoxically is ever new offering fresh wisdom to Christian leaders and optimism to the church for our quest to expand Christ's kingdom and serve the worldwide mission of God

Ambassadors of Reconciliation Geoff Hartt, Michael A. Ortiz, Manuel Böhm, 2023-08-15 Reconciling Practice and Theology What does reconciliation have to do with the work of missions In today's conflict ridden world the concept of reconciliation has gained traction and Christian missions is being rethought The whole world cries out for holistic transformation with eternal value and God's people are called to be his ambassadors Ambassadors of Reconciliation lays the groundwork for exploring a new paradigm for missions Divided into three parts the book first establishes the theological foundations of reconciliation The second part then shows how theory and practice go hand in hand Finally the third part uses case studies to highlight the importance of understanding brokenness conflict and culture for effective ministry in reconciliation The contributors challenge readers to consider the church's role in God's mission and how every Christian can become an envoy of his restoration work They emphasize the spiritual dimension of reconciliation and offer practical guidance for effectively engaging in ministry Whether you are a missionary pastor or someone interested in promoting restoration in the world this book provides valuable insights and tools for your journey Ministering in Patronage Cultures Jayson Georges, 2019-11-12

Patronage is a central part of global cultures and the biblical story of God's mission yet many Westerners misunderstand or ignore this concept In this resource for ministry practitioners and lay Christians alike Jayson Georges brings his crosscultural experience and biblical insights to bear on the topic of patronage with sections on cultural issues biblical models theological concepts and missional implications Propelled by Hope Yvonne Huneycutt, 2024-01-30 50 Years of Mobilizing for

Frontier Missions Do not despise the day of small beginnings These words from the book of Zachariah were prophetically spoken by famed missiologist Arthur Glasser to the inaugural Perspectives class in 1974 The mystery of transformation from a tiny classroom discussion into a sweeping frontier mission seems lost to time The fascinating connection between the Perspectives movement the frontier mission movement and church planting movements is a story rarely told yet vital to understanding the spread of the gospel to resistant populations Yvonne Huneycutt's Propelled by Hope unfolds the hidden tapestry of these interconnected movements through sixty personal interviews and inspiring anecdotes Huneycutt explains how the Jesus Movement transformed disillusioned youth into fervent volunteers for mission Discover not just history but a spiritual journey that offers lessons inspiration and encouragement for today's believers Whether you are a mission leader a student of missiology or someone seeking to understand God's movement in the world this book will deepen your insight into the strategies goals and personal stories that have shaped modern missions Blessed Are the Peacemakers Helen Paynter, 2023-11-07 This volume in Biblical Theology for Life series dives deeply into the topic of human violence Before exploring what the Bible says about violence Old Testament scholar Helen Paynter sets out the contours for the study ahead by addressing the various definitions of violence and the theories of its origins prevalence and purpose What is violence Is there such a thing as natural violence Is violence a human or social construct or can we describe natural phenomena as violent How does the concept of violence relate to the concept of evil Violence is everywhere is it escapable How do we resist violence Having queued up the questions Paynter takes us to the Bible for answers Starting with the creation narratives in Genesis considered in comparison with the ancient Near Eastern myths and moving to the conquest of Canaan the most problematic of biblical narratives she investigates how these deep myths speak to the origins of human violence and its consequences The prevalence of violence through biblical history is inescapable Scripture reveals the hydra-like nature of human violence investigating types of violence including but not limited to structural violence verbal violence sexual violence violence as public political act racialised violence including othering Through the voices of the prophets and then in the teaching of Jesus the Bible reveals that the seeds of violence exist within every human heart Even though we see evidence of resistance movements in the Bible such as the responses to attempted genocide in Exodus and Esther it is only on the cross that an absorption of violence by God takes place a defeat of violence by self-sacrifice Along the way Paynter considers other relevant biblical themes including the apocalypse crushing the serpent's head and the concept of divine vengeance culminating in the resurrected Christ's lack of vengeance against those who did him to death In light of the New Testament we will consider how the first Christians responded to the structural violence of slavery and patriarchy and how they began to apply Jesus' redemptive non-vengeful theology to their own day The book concludes by discussing of what this means for Christians today For many of us who live without routine encounters with or threats of violence we must consider our responsibility in a world where our experience is the exception With attention to the multi-headed hydra that is violence and the concealed structures of violence in our own Western society Paynter challenges readers to consider their own perhaps inherited privilege and complicity The question of how we regard others both as individuals and as societies is a deeply relevant and urgent one for the church The church can and should be a wholly non othering body So what implications does this have for the church and for example Black Lives Matter or the rampant xenophobia in our society or immigration and global migration issues How do we resist evil What does it mean to turn the other cheek when the cheek that has been slapped is not our own How do we resist the monster without becoming the monster Crossing Cultures with Jesus Katie J. Rawson,2015-10-21 You can be a missionary by crossing an ocean or by crossing the street Filled with compelling stories practical resources and relational tools this guide from veteran crosscultural minister Katie Rawson shows how we can witness the way Jesus did entering into people s worlds and drawing them into God centered community Crossing Cultures in Scripture Marvin J. Newell,2016-10-02 Missionary and missions professor Marvin Newell provides a biblical theology of culture and mission mining the depths of Scripture to tease out missiological insights and crosscultural perspectives Organized canonically from Genesis to Revelation this text reveals how the whole of Scripture speaks to contemporary mission realities Contextualization and the Old Testament Jerry Hwang,2022-09-26 Christianity is often viewed in Asia as a Western imposition Challenging this Dr Jerry Hwang examines the Old Testament s cultural engagement of its ancient Near Eastern context arguing that Scripture itself provides the ultimate model for contextualizing theology in Asia While it is common for missiological studies to ignore the Old Testament in their discussion of contextualization truly biblical contextualization must include the whole Bible not simply the New Testament This study provides insightful discourse between the Old Testament and various Asian contexts while demonstrating how Asian perspectives can help overcome the Eurocentrism prevalent in Old Testament scholarship This is an ideal resource for scholars and practitioners interested in a biblical perspective of contextualization especially as related to constructing theology that honors the truth of Scripture in the context of Asia One New Humanity Kristin Caynor,Werner Mischke,2025-04-01 Is Jesus the way to recover our humanity One New Humanity offers a vision of glory that confronts the shame and violence of our world Drawing insights from early Christians the global church social sciences and Scripture the authors argue that Ephesians 2 13 17 reveals a social and horizontal dimension to the gospel of Christ In Christ we gain a new peaceable way of being human Through this extensive look at the gospel of peace we discover that Scripture speaks more powerfully than we often realize to the problems of polarization alienation shame and violence The gospel offers a way out of the cycles of violence which have entrapped both the church and the world and opens up a path of true freedom purpose and glory in Jesus One New Humanity offers a fresh framework for Jesus centered reconciliation we embody Christ s peace for the world near and far The Burden of Baggage Roy Oksnevad,2019-03-15 Overcoming Cultural Baggage One Generation at a Time This uncommon resource targets a little discussed but highly prevalent challenge that first generation churches face Specifically The Burden of Baggage explores how cultural upbringing can be both a strength and a weakness as it impacts expressions of church life as seen in the personal interpersonal family leadership styles and spiritual walk Every person coming to Christ has baggage but a first generation believer especially one coming from a background with little or no connection to Christianity has an uncommon amount of cultural baggage that they bring with them This book tackles common issues and sees specific examples played out in the Iranian church as a prime example of these challenges While the book focuses on Muslim background believers from Iran it has transferable insight for Other background believers from any oppressive regime and therefore is highly encouraging in the universality of the struggle that new believers face as they draw near to Christ Readers will walk away knowing they are not alone in their struggles as they deal with gut wrenching issues that often aren't able to be solved in one generation and yet gain hope from the redemptive stories within

Restored to Freedom from Fear, Guilt, and Shame Paul H. De Neui, 2017-06-01 Lessons from the Buddhist World SEANET proudly presents Restored to Freedom from Fear Guilt and Shame volume 13 in its series on intercultural and inter religious studies These three cultural orientations impact the shaping and expression of worldview While all are present to a certain extent in every context this volume draws from the expressions and insights found from within the Buddhist world Understanding orientations differing from our own helps us understand more of ourselves part of the enrichment resulting in the process of encounter We require the lens of the world in order to better recognize our own cultural blindness We use the word restoration believing that it is God's purpose to restore all that was lost through fear guilt and shame back to the original status of power honor and innocence through reconciliation on all levels This volume is for all who seek restoration to freedom for self and others

Contextualizing the Faith A. Scott Moreau, 2018-11-06 This major statement by a leading missiologist represents a lifetime of wrestling with a topic every cross cultural leader must address how to adapt the universal gospel to particular settings This comprehensive yet accessible textbook organizes contextualization which includes everything the church is and does into seven dimensions Filled with examples case studies and diagrams and conversant with contemporary arguments and debates it offers the author's unique take on the challenge of adapting the faith in local cultures
