Use of the notion of Surplus Value

"The prolongation of the working day beyond the point at which the labourer would have produced just an equivalent for the value of his labour-power (Cap., Engels transl. p. 518) cf. p. 539

Clearly this prolongation must be equal for all workers in all industries - so that the intensity of exploitation is equal for all of them.

Put it the other way round. If starting from capitalist society the working day is shortened till there is no surplus value left, this shortening must be equal for all: if it is, the prices of the commodities will change [owing to change in the rate of profits, which vanishes], but the wages will remain unchanged: if it is not, and the working day is reduced to the extent of the
