Garry, 2013-08 These poems arose from taking a different look at my life and my surroundings after suffering severe injuries from a fall For a time I could not see the light of day but then my spirit was touched and I was elevated to see life differently Writing about my newly found life was therapeutic and ignited sources of inspiration observation and elation for me Look around and take the time to see listen and hear the quietness of your soul and let it speak to you Find peace happiness and joy in what you discover and think on those things Live in the present in the moment of absolute consciousness and see what you are doing right now and appreciate your life the air you breathe the nature that you see the people who love you and the nameless person by whom you pass It is my hope that you will enjoy reading my poems as much as I enjoyed writing them Thank You My Life, My Times, My Poems John Anthony Banfield, 2009-01-29 John's life started at the beginning of World War Two when he was evacuated from London as a baby to various homes in the South of England Some were very good homes but others were a nightmare Short Stories and Poems George Evans, 2019-09-03 This book is a compilation of short stories and poems No Regrets Living Harley A. Eliot* T. S. Eliot, 2012-09-18 In the period covered by this richly detailed collection T S Eliot was to set a new course for his life and work The demands of his professional life as writer and editor became more complex and exacting The celebrated but financially pressed periodical he had been editing since 1922 The Criterion A Literary Review switched between being a quarterly and a monthly in addition to writing numerous essays and editorials lectures reviews introductions and prefaces his letters show Eliot involving himself wholeheartedly in the business of his new career as a publisher This correspondence with friends and mentors vividly documents all the stages of Eliot s personal and artistic transformation during these crucial years the continuing anxieties of his private life and the forging of his public reputation Poetry as Testimony Antony Rowland, 2014-03-26 This book analyzes Holocaust poetry war poetry working class poetry and 9 11 poetry as forms of testimony Rowland argues that testamentary poetry requires a different approach to traditional ways of dealing with poems due to the pressure of the metatext the original traumatic events the poems demands for the hyper attentiveness of the reader and a paradox of identification that often draws the reader towards identifying with the poet s experience but then reminds them of its sublimity He engages with the work of a diverse range of twentieth century authors and across the literature of several countries even uncovering new archival material The study ends with an analysis of the poetry of 9 11 engaging with the idea that it typifies a new era of testimony where global secondary witnesses react to a proliferation of media images This book ranges across the literature of several countries cultures and historical events in order to stress the large variety of contexts in which poetry has functioned productively as a form of testimony and to note the importance of the availability of translations to the formation of literary canons The Letters of Ruth Pitter Don W. King, 2014-03-27 Although Ruth Pitter 1897 1992 is not well known her credentials as a poet are extensive and in England from the mid 1930s to the mid 1970s she maintained a modest yet loyal readership In total she produced eighteen volumes of new and collected verse Her A Trophy of Arms 1936 won the Hawthornden Prize for Poetry in 1937 and in 1954 she was awarded the William E Heinemann Award for The Ermine 1953 Most notably perhaps she became the first woman to receive the Queen s Gold Medal for Poetry in 1955 Furthermore from 1946 to 1972 she was often a guest on BBC radio and television programs In 1974 The Royal Society of Literature elected her to its highest honor a Companion of Literature and in 1979 she received her last national award when she was appointed a Commander of the British Empire Pitter was a voluminous letter writer Her friends and correspondents read like a Who's Who of twentieth century British literary luminaries including AE George Russell A R Orage Hilaire Belloc Walter de la Mare Julian Huxley John Masefield Phillip and Ottoline Morrell George Orwell Dylan Thomas T S Eliot C S Lewis James Stephens Dorothy L Sayers Siegfried Sassoon Virginia Sackville West Dorothy Wellesley Lord David Cecil John Betjeman Evelyn Waugh John Wain Kathleen Raine and May Sarton Stylistically Pitter's letters are marked by crisp prose precise imagery and elegant simplicity reflecting a well read and vigorous mind lithe curious penetrating analytical and perceptive Of her more than one thousand letters covering the years 1908-1988 published here is a generous selection These selected letters go a long way toward illustrating Pitter's desire to reach a public interested in her as both a poet and personal commentator These letters offer an understanding of the silent music the dance in stillness the hints and echoes and messages of which everything is full reflected in her life and poetry In total they provide an essential introduction to the work of this neglected twentieth century poet

Black Bell Alison C. Rollins, 2024-04-23 Sweeping from the eighteenth century to futurist fabulations Black Bell harmonizes poetry with performance art practices in an investigation of fugitivity Inspired by the nineteenth century image of an enslaved woman wearing iron horns and bells Alison C Rollins's Black Bell continues an exploration of cataloging individual experience and collective memory As Rollins sets out to resuscitate and embody the archive we see a chorus of historical figures like Eliza Harris Henry Box Brown and Lear Green readers can listen in as Phillis Wheatley takes a Turing test or venture through Dante's Inferno remixed with Wu Tang Clan's 36 Chambers Poems travel across time and space between the eighteenth century and futuristic fabulations vibrating with fugitive frequencies sounds of survival and nerve wracking notes tuned toward love and liberation Black Bell navigates what it means to be both invisible and spectacle hidden and on display allowing lyric language to become the material for fashioning wearable sculptures akin to Nick Cave's soundsuits Integrating performance art practices metalwork and sonic Black Bell becomes multimedia meditation on freedom seeking furthering the possibilities of both the page and the canvas of the poet's body
