Hyde, 2016-11-10 Excerpt from The American Boy's Life of Washington It might almost seem presumptuous for any one to offer another version of the life of Washington when the ground has been so fully occupied by Worthier pens After Marshall Sparks and Irving have written who indeed need take up the subject Yet it was suggested that a boy's life of this great man might still be welcomed by the public and would find readers among the rising generation those who would shrink from a larger work and yet could find enjoyment in a little book like this About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works All-American Boy Larzer Ziff, 2012-10-01 Examines the theme of the American boy in literature citing such examples as young Washington Tom Sawyer Little Lord Fauntleroy and Holden Caulfield and explains how each character reflects the time period in which he was written The American Boy's Book, 1843 All American Boys Jason Reynolds, Brendan Kiely, 2015-09-29 A 2016 Coretta Scott King Author Honor book and recipient of the Walter Dean Myers Award for Outstanding Children's Literature In this New York Times bestselling novel two teens one black one white grapple with the repercussions of a single violent act that leaves their school their community and ultimately the country bitterly divided by racial tension A bag of chips That's all sixteen year old Rashad is looking for at the corner bodega What he finds instead is a fist happy cop Paul Galluzzo who mistakes Rashad for a shoplifter mistakes Rashad's pleadings that he's stolen nothing for belligerence mistakes Rashad's resistance to leave the bodega as resisting arrest mistakes Rashad's every flinch at every punch the cop throws as further resistance and refusal to STAY STILL as ordered But how can you stay still when someone is pounding your face into the concrete pavement There were witnesses Quinn Collins a varsity basketball player and Rashad's classmate who has been raised by Paul since his own father died in Afghanistan and a video camera Soon the beating is all over the news and Paul is getting threatened with accusations of prejudice and racial brutality Quinn refuses to believe that the man who has basically been his savior could possibly be guilty But then Rashad is absent And absent again And again And the basketball team half of whom are Rashad's best friends start to take sides As does the school And the town Simmering tensions threaten to explode as Rashad and Quinn are forced to face decisions and consequences they had never considered before Written in tandem by two award winning authors this four starred reviewed tour de force shares the alternating perspectives of Rashad and Quinn as the complications from that single violent moment the type taken directly from today's headlines unfold and reverberate to highlight an unwelcome truth
