The Age of New Waves James Tweedie, 2013-09-19 The Age of New Waves is a global and comparative study of new wave cinemas from the French nouvelle vague to films from Taiwan and mainland China in the late twentieth century that focuses on the relationships among art cinema youth and cities during the era of globalization The Legacy of the New Wave in French Cinema

Douglas Morrey, 2019-09-05 In this study of the impact and influence of the New Wave in French cinema Douglas Morrey looks at both the subsequent careers of New Wave filmmakers and the work of later film directors and film movements in France This book is organized around a series of key moments from the past 50 years of French cinema in order to show how the meaning and legacy of the New Wave have shifted over time and how the priorities approaches and discourses of filmmakers and film critics have changed over the years Morrey tackles key concepts such as the auteur the relationship of form and content gender and sexuality intertextuality and rhythm Filmmakers discussed include Godard Truffaut Varda Chabrol and Rohmer plus Philippe Garrel Luc Besson Leos Carax Bruno Dumont the Dardenne brothers Christophe Honor Fran ois Ozon and Jacques Audiard The French New Wave Peter Graham, Ginette Vincendeau, 2022-09-08

The French New Wave is an essential anthology of writings by and about the critics and filmmakers of this revolutionary cinematic movement which has had a radical impact on film practice and the way we think and write about film The volume includes foundational writings such as Francois Truffaut's A Certain Tendency in French Cinema and Andre Bazin's La Politique des auteurs as well writings by Jean Luc Godard Claude Chabrol and Alexandre Astruc This new edition now represents writings by and about women critics and film makers including important articles by the critics Evelyne Sullerot Michele Firk and Fran oise Aude addressing issues of gender and representation as well as considering New Wave films in the context of contemporary political events notably France's colonialist war on the Algerian independence movement To accompany the case study of Godard's bout de souffle the new edition includes a case study of the critical reception of two films by Agn s Varda La Pointe Courte and Cl o de 5 7 The articles have been specially translated for the volume by Peter Graham and some are published for the first time in English These classic writings are accompanied by contextualising introductions by Ginette Vincendeau updated for this new edition to form a unique resource on this key cinematic movement and its practitioners The Body in Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave Films Francesca Minnie

Hardy, 2023-10-30 This original study examines the representation of the body in French New Wave films through discussion of a series of films by Jean Luc Godard perhaps the central figure of the French New Wave Through analysis of bout de souffle Une femme est une femme Le M pris and Alphaville alongside discussion of some of Godard's lesser known French New Wave films the book explores the interrelation between bodies books and bathrooms that they facilitate In so doing it aims to destabilise the French New Wave's myth of male exceptionalism and denaturalise the gender dynamic most commonly viewed at its heart revealing that the women who make up a fundamental part of its fabric are not textually trapped by Godard's authorial presence. Instead, their corporeality disrupts any purported authorial and national ownership of their bodies. Given the enduring popularity and visibility of the French New Wave and of Jean-Luc Godard in universities and journals, The Body in Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave Films will appeal to scholars in the disciplines of French and film studies as well as to undergraduate and postgraduate students of these disciplines. The New Wave James Monaco, 2004. Three decades after its first publication, The New Wave is still considered one of the fundamental texts on the French film movement of the same name. Led by filmmakers as influential as Truffaut and Godard, the New Wave was a seminal moment in cinematic history, and The New Wave has been hailed as the most complete book ever written about it. The New Wave tells the story of the New Wave through examinations of five of the most important directors of the era: Truffaut, Godard, Chabrol, Rohmer, and Rivette. With detailed notes and over fifty breathtaking stills, the book has appealed both to academics and interested novices alike. The thirtieth anniversary edition includes a new afterword by the author. Praise for the first edition of The New Wave: "The most complete book I know on the five most important directors of the New Wave." Costa Gavarras. At last, a book that intelligently and critically examines that remarkable phenomenon known as the New Wave. Not just a book for film buffs, it is essential reading for anyone interested in the interrelations between art, politics, and life in the second half of the twentieth century. A remarkable achievement." Richard Roud, Founder, New York Film Festival. There is a genuine kind of honesty at work in the writing, a sense that the author wishes to describe the subject more clearly, help the reader, and not explain in the pompous sense of the word or criticize for the sake of being superior. It's refreshing." Ted Perry, Museum of Modern Art. Trans New Wave Cinema Akkadia Ford, 2021-04-21. This book presents a critical cultural study of the Trans New Wave as a cinematic genre and explores its emergence in the twenty-first century. Drawing on a diverse range of texts, the cultural, social, aesthetic, and ethical implications of the genre are placed within the context of rapidly changing understandings of gender diversity. From the cinematic borderlands of independent film festivals to wider public recognition via digital technologies, the genre encompasses a diverse range of texts from short films, documentaries, experimental films to feature films and narratives that range across life histories, narratives, and themes. The book presents transliteracy as an original theoretical approach to reading film representations of the Trans New Wave and combines it with a new theoretical concept of cinematic ethnogenesis to investigate how the genre emerged from specific communities and the reciprocal interaction of audiences and texts. This interdisciplinary volume engages with contemporary issues of gender diversity, transgender studies, screen and media studies, and film festival studies and, as such, will be of great interest to scholars working in these fields and in media and cultural studies more generally. Radio's New Wave Jason Loviglio, Michele Hilmes, 2013-06-19. Radio's New Wave explores the evolution of audio media and sound scholarship in the digital age. Extending and updating the focus of their widely acclaimed 2001 book The Radio Reader, Hilmes and Loviglio gather together innovative work by both established and rising scholars to explore the ways that radio has transformed in the digital environment Contributors explore what sound looks like on screens how digital listening moves us new forms of sonic expression radio s convergence with mobile media and the creative activities of old and new audiences Even radio s history has been altered by research made possible by digital and global convergence Together these twelve concise chapters chart the dissolution of radio s boundaries and its expansion to include a wide ranging universe of sound visuals tactile interfaces and cultural roles as radio rides the digital wave into its second century Australian Theatre after the New Wave Julian Meyrick,2017-09-25 In Australian Theatre after the New Wave Julian Meyrick charts the history of three ground breaking Australian theatre companies the Paris Theatre 1978 the Hunter Valley Theatre 1976 94 and Anthill Theatre 1980 94 In the years following the controversial dismissal of Gough Whitlam s Labor government in 1975 these alternative theatres struggled to survive in an increasingly adverse economic environment Drawing on interviews and archival sources including Australia Council files and correspondence the book examines the funding structures in which the companies operated and the impact of the cultural policies of the period It analyses the changing relationship between the artist and the State the rise of a managerial ethos of accountability and the growing dominance of government in the fate of the nation s theatre In doing so it shows the historical roots of many of the problems facing Australian theatre today This is an exceptionally timely book In giving a history of Australian independent theatre it not only charts the amazing rise and strange disappearance of an energetic radical and dynamically democratic artistic movement but also tries to explain that rise and fall and how we should relate to it now Prof Justin O Connor Monash University This study makes a significant contribution to scholarship on Australian theatre and more broadly to the global discussion about the vexed relationship between artists creativity government funding for the arts and cultural policy Dr Gillian Arrighi The University of Newcastle Australia

Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom,2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don t understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming liang s What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao hsien s Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie s Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of m tissage or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu chieh s Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai's debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom's insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length work on Sino French cinema maps uncharted territory offering a paradigm for understanding other cross cultural interminglings and tools to study transnational cinema and world cinema The Sino French rich and multifaceted linguistically culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies Francophone studies Sinophone studies and myriad other fields This is a must read for students scholars and lovers of film

New Wave, New Hollywood Gregory Frame, Nathan Abrams, 2021-09-23 As a period of film history The American New Wave ordinarily understood as beginning in 1967 and ending in 1980 remains a preoccupation for scholars and audiences alike In traditional accounts it is considered to be bookended by two periods of conservatism and viewed as a brief period of explosive creativity within the Hollywood system From Bonnie and Clyde to Heaven's Gate it produced films that continue to be watched discussed analysed and poured over It has however also become rigidly defined as a cinema of director auteurs who made a number of aesthetically and politically significant films This has led to marginalization and exclusion of many important artists and filmmakers as well as a temporal rigidity about what and who is considered part of the New Wave proper This collection seeks to reinvigorate debate around this area of film history It also looks in part to demonstrate the legacy of aesthetic experimentation and political radicalism after 1980 as part of the legacy of the New Wave Thanks to important new work that questions received scholarly wisdom reveals previously marginalised filmmakers and the films they made considers new genres personnel and films under the banner of New Wave New Hollywood and reevaluates the traditional approaches and perspectives on the films that have enjoyed most critical attention New Wave New Hollywood Reassessment Recovery Legacy looks to begin a new discussion about Hollywood cinema after 1967

Taiwan Cinema as Soft Power Song Hwee Lim, 2022 Why has Taiwanese film been so appealing to film directors, critics and audiences across the world? This book argues that because Taiwan is a nation without hard political and economic power, cinema becomes a form of soft power tool that Taiwan uses to attract global attention, to gain support and to build allies. Author Song Hwee Lim shows how this goal has been achieved by Taiwanese directors whose films win the hearts and minds of foreign audiences to make Taiwan a major force in world cinema. The book maps Taiwan's cinematic output in the twenty-first century through the three keywords in the book's subtitle: authorship, transnationality, historiography. Its object of analysis is the legacy of Taiwan New Cinema, a movement that began in the early 1980s that has had a lasting impact upon filmmakers and cinephiles worldwide for nearly forty years. By examining case studies that include Hou Hsiao-hsien, Ang Lee and Tsai Ming-liang, this book suggests that authorship is central to Taiwan cinema's ability to transcend borders to the extent that the historiographical writing of Taiwan cinema has to be reimagined. It also looks at the scaling down of soft power from the global to the regional via a cultural imaginary called little freshness, which describes films and cultural products from Taiwan that have become hugely popular in China and Hong Kong. In presenting Taiwan cinema's significance as a case of a small nation with enormous soft power, this book hopes to recast the terms and stakes of both cinema studies and soft power studies in academia.
