The Arithmetic Of The Church Ready To Preach Sermons:

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching ,2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

The Living Church ,1949 Preach Better Sermons Shane Stone, Ph.D., 2018-12-18 The objective of this book is to address the following

premises
 Premise number one The purpose and aim of Christian preaching teaching is to produce spiritually faithful biblically capable and productively active disciples of Jesus Christ
 Premise number two Conventional preaching teaching philosophies and methods are not achieving the desired effects in far too many cases This is evidenced by the numbers of lukewarm churches and spiritually broad but not deep Christians
 Premise number three A paradigm shift in how sermons and Bible lessons should be prepared and communicated will help alleviate the problem and is long overdue This book addresses the shortcomings of modern Christian preaching envisions the strongest and deepest approaches to biblical teaching and learning and lays out specific steps to get churches classrooms and pulpit ministries from where they are to where they need to be The Ecclesiastical gazette, or, Monthly register of the affairs of the Church of England ,1882

Will Campbell, Preacher Man Kyle Childress,Rodney Wallace Kennedy,2016-08-04 This collection of essays and sermons by Rodney Kennedy and Kyle Childress is focused on honoring the memory of Will Campbell the prophet from the South who made a vocation of destroying sacred cows The essays and sermons attempt to be true to the spirit of Will Campbell s devotion to the gospel above all else It should not be surprising that the essays and sermons are about the business of deconstructing more sacred cows while lifting up the truth claims of the gospel Certaine sermons or homilies appoynted to be read in churches, in the time of the late Queene Elizabeth ... And now thought fit to be reprinted, etc Church of England,1633 Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim,2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women s preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself It is the author s hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman s perspective Kim s ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium Through Kim s eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation Ronald J Allen Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th Miller Professor of Professor of Preaching and New Testament Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana Kim s exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world Those churches that continue to deny women s preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality They also quench the Spirit who years to transform us co workers in the liberative work of God Cliff Guthrie Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies Bangor Theological Seminary Bangor Maine Collectio rerum
