

ADVANCE PRAISE FOR THE ASTOR ORPHAN

"A sparkingly mischievous debut. . . . Aldrich's narrative tidily and fondly bears witness to the inexorable unraveling of a storied genealogy."

—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

"It's the highest of compliments to say that a memoir reads like fiction, and Alexandra Aldrich accomplishes this in her phenomenal debut. With swift, haunting prose, Aldrich breathes new life into the Astor clan. The Astor Orphan ensnared me with its opening chapter—frozen goats!—leaving me enraptured and horrified long after putting the book down."

—SUSANNAH CAHALAN,

author of the New York Times bestseller Brain on Fire

"A beautifully rendered family saga—full of fires, affairs, aristocrats, and illegitimate children. At the center is an endearing heroine whose eccentric childhood on the Grey Gardens-style Rokeby estate would make Dickens gasp. It is a story of lost grandeur, familial love, and the determination of one brave young woman to make a better life for herself. A splendid memoir."

—JENNIFER VANDERBES,

author of Easter Island and Strangers at the Feast

"Alexandra Aldrich is a member of the storied Astor clan, but her 1980s childhood on the family's decaying Hudson Valley estate was a far cry from that of her aristocratic predecessors. In this evocative debut memoir, Aldrich astutely portrays a colorful cast of aunts, uncles, cousins, and hangers-on—clinging to the family legacy long after the money is gone. One can't help but cheer as she breaks away from the others to make a name for herself."

—ELLIOTT HOLT,

author of You Are One of Them
