Civic Education for SS 1-3 Nigeria. Federal Ministry of Education, 2009 Essential Civic Education for Senior Secondary Schools (SS1, SS2 & SS3) Gbenga M. Babalola, Igbinobu Chuks, 2015 The Civic Textbook Aleksandar Saša Zeković, 2005 Holt McDougal Civics in Practice Gregory I. Massing, Holt McDougal, 2009 The United States is a model of freedom democracy and economic strength for the rest of the world Our continued success as a world leader depends on whether citizens like you take an active part in our government and institutions This Civics program helps you foster student civic responsibility with a balanced approach that focuses on the principles of government active citizenship and responsible economic participation Throughout Holt Civics in Practice you will find special features that will help you understand more about your roles in your country and community Many of these features were developed with our partners the Center for Civic Education and the World Almanac Education Group From the publisher Our Government Henry Lester Smith, Sheldon Emmor Davis, Clarence Henry McClure, 1936 The purpose of teaching Civics is to give the pupil a knowledge of the origin and functions of government agencies and to develop an attitude of respect and co operation toward these agencies The outcome should be a citizen who recognizes the duties and privileges of citizenship and who will govern his activities in accordance with established law This text has been prepared for the purpose of presenting the most worth while and important of the available civic material and applying it to the great principles of government which must be understood if our teaching of Civics is to produce the desired results here the principles of government and the concrete problems of the community are related in a logical and natural way that aids in the understanding of both Foreword page v Civics Today McGraw-Hill Staff, Richard C. Remy, 2002-09-01 Fundamentals of Civic Education Engida Kassaye Amare, 2003

Preparing for Citizenship William Backus Guitteau, 1931 Preparing for Citizenship William Backus Guitteau, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from Preparing for Citizenship An Elementary d104book in Civics At the close of each chapter in the text the teacher will find questions and topics for further study and investigation The more simple investigations only should be undertaken in classes composed of the younger pupils Care should be exercised also in selecting only questions of especial interest to the particular community for example rural schools will naturally omit many questions pertaining to urban conditions and vice versa As a rule it will be best to assign one question to each pupil or to a group of pupils to be reported on at a future date The teacher should suggest sources of information for pupils to make use of in their investigations Often the parents or older brothers and sisters can give the necessary help or again it may be advisable to consult local officials for information concerning their work Members of the class should be encouraged to visit township county and municipal offices and local officials should be invited to come before the class and describe the business of their departments Added interest may be secured by organizing the class into a town meeting or as a city council State legislature or branch of Congress A bulletin board in the classroom for newspaper clippings pertaining to governmental affairs will
